Writing As Revelation:

Writing as Revelation Marjorie A. Ford, Jon Ford, 1992      A God's Own Tale Terry F. Kleeman, 1994-08-04 This scripture was revealed through spirit writing in 1181 It traces Wenchang s development through his many transformations culminating in his apotheosis as director of the Wenchang Palace and custodian of the Cinnamon Record that determines men s and women s fates The god has since assumed a high position in the Taoist pantheon has been introduced into the school system and Confucian temples and now controls the all important civil service examinations in China The text translated here provides a unique window into the religious world of Traditional China Numerous anecdotes of good and evil doers reveal the ethical dilemmas facing men and women of the time from social questions like infanticide and discrimination against women to more purely religious issues such as how evil gods are punished and how China s divergent religious traditions can be reconciled

Believing in a Revealing God Gabriel Moran, 2016-12-09 What is faith Is it a thing one has or a human activity What is revelation Is it a deposit of truths in the past or God s action in the present These questions are addressed by renowned religious educator Gabriel Moran who draws upon biblical and theological traditions set within today s interreligious dialogue A church of moral and liturgical activity in relation to a revealing God is the needed response to both a dismissal of religion and apocalyptic violence in its name The future role of Christianity in the world and in individual lives may well hang in the balance The Christian ideas of faith and revelation will either be the chief obstacle to dialogue with the contemporary world or else the main foundation to a Christian spiritual life that can give substance and direction to religious searching Gabriel Moran is a professor in the Department of Humanities and the Social Sciences at New York University He is widely credited with reshaping the field of religious education in the United States and beyond Moran is author of twenty books on religion and education including Religious Education as a Second Language Both Sides The Story of Revelation and most recently Speaking of Teaching Lessons from History
