Writers Of Montreal:

The Writers of Montreal Elaine Kalman Naves, 1993 A rich literary heritage in both English and French makes Montreal unique in North America The Writers of Montreal celebrates the literary heritage of Emile Nelligan Stephen Leacock Gabrielle Roy Hubert Aquin F R Scott Yves Theriault and Hugh MacLennan The Writers of Montreal also celebrates the poets playwrights and fiction writers who are actively writing today Included are Michel Tremblay Mavis Gallant Yves Beauchemin Louis Dudek Marie Claire Blais Irving Layton Nicole Brossard and Mordecai Richler These thirty illustrated biographical essays are an intriguing introduction to a distinguished tradition of Montreal writing from early colonial times to the present New Readings of Yiddish Montreal - Traduire le Montréal yiddish Pierre Anctil, Norman Ravvin, Sherry Simon, 2007-06-30 The texts collected in this volume unveil the practice and the methods of the translators and scholars who contributed to the reemergence of Yiddish in contemporary Canada Each of the personalities discussed enlarged the historical position and interpreted various aspects of the Yiddish language in Montreal that until recently remained obscure or inaccessible Published in English Montreal in Verse Canadian Authors Association. Montréal Branch, 1942

Putting Down Roots Elaine Kalman Naves, 1998 Immigrant writers who have made their homes in Montreal grapple with difficult questions like reconciling loyalty to their origins and to their own most private selves with the need to find a readership and their desire to belong to the society where they live Putting Down Roots follows the author's exploratory journeys among writers of Italian Haitian Arab South Asian and Chinese origin as well as those writing in Yiddish Spanish and Hungarian Translating Montreal Sherry Simon, 2011-05-01 Translating Montreal follows the trajectories of adventurous cultural translators such as Malcolm Reid F R Scott and A M Klein pioneers of the 1950s and 1960s Pierre Anctil whose translations from Yiddish to French are emblematic of the dramatic reroutings now occurring across the Montreal landscape and contemporary writer translators such as Gail Scott Erin Mour Jacques Brault Michel Garneau Nicole Brossard and Emile Ollivier Simon argues that translation is a dynamic and subtle tool for analysing cultural contact An original take on cultural relations in the city Translating Montreal explores the emergence of the new Montrealer No longer Franco Qu'becois Anglo Qu'becois immigrant or ethnic the new Montrealer is a citizen of a mixed and cosmopolitan city The Canadian Illustrated Shorthand Writer, 1880 Tales from the Visitor Class in Montreal James Cummins, 2012-11 In 2005 at the age of 23 James Cummins moved to Montreal Quebec after living his entire life in Alberta Over the following seven years Cummins wrote three major unpublished works two novels and an absurdist piece of theatre in addition to many published non fiction books and articles Each of his unpublished works though exposes the soul of an artist discovering his love for a new and wondrous city he came to call home and living in a place isolating him with culture and language barriers seemingly impenetrable at times By the end of these seven years Cummins had gone from an obscure stage manager technical director actor and writer from the Concordia University College of Alberta to the winner of the 2009 BookTelevision award for the best Canadian writer under the age of 30 having written books published on major publishers and ghostwritten dozens more. It is however these most sensitive until now unpublished works that express the things hidden from his other works: the abstract sublimations of an Anglophone living isolated in a foreign place. From Guiding Hand (1977) written in his first years in Montreal and inspired fake news culture to A Temple for Oysters and Ferns written for the 2009 Canadian 3 Day Novel Contest to The Sublime his most recent abstract dramatic work these pieces exhibit the private work of one of Canada's brightest new writers. Cummins currently resides in Ottawa Ontario serving as Chief Operating Officer of the Internet company WikiExperts.us and President of In Fusion Productions.

Fascism and the Italians of Montreal Filippo Salvatore, 1998. This book of interviews is an absorbing autobiography of the Italian community of Montreal and its encounters with important events in Canada and in Europe from 1922 to 1945 from Mussolini's March on Rome to the Concordat between the Catholic Church and the Italian state from the war in Ethiopia to the Pact of Steel signed by Mussolini and Hitler from the Spanish civil war to the declaration of war between Italy and Canada. The reader will discover sensational revelations about the hundreds of Italian Canadians who were interned by the Canadian government during the Second World War often on trumped up charges and without a single shred of evidence against them. These interviews recount the Italian community's passions and sorrows its exuberant love of life and its struggle for survival and dignity in America.

Canadian Writers and Their Works: Isabella Valancy Crawford, Charles Heavyside, Charles Mair, Charles Sangster Robert Lecker, Jack David, Ellen Quigley, Donald Wilfred McLeod, 1983. Fiction in French - Fiction in Soviet British Library, 2013-02-07. No detailed description available for Fiction in French. Fiction in Soviet Italian-Canadian Writers Joseph Pivato, Canada. Multiculturalism, 1988. Echo Joseph Pivato, 2003. This collection of essays explores the literature of Italian immigrants in Canada and their children by focusing on the central role that themes of migration hold in their work. Addressing topics such as the oral roots of Canadian immigrant writing the changing place of women in works of the Italian diaspora and the persistent difficulties of translation this work provides an international perspective on some of the most pressing questions in the study of literature today. In addition to Canadian works the work of immigrant writers from Australia and other countries is also considered producing nuanced observations of cultural differences and affinities.
