Threadsuns Green Integer:

Threadsuns Paul Celan, 2005 One of Paul Celan's most important books of poems Threadsuns follows the Green Integer press publication of Breathturn which received international critical acclaim Consisting of 105 poems arranged in five cycles Threadsuns was composed between September 1965 and June 1967 If Breathturn was the opening gambit of Celan's turn the entry into the late work then Threadsuns the volume that may have received the least amount of commentary and analysis to date may be said to be not only an extension or continuation of the previous volume but the full blown realization of Celan's late work

BOOK JACKET Afterletters R. Kolewe, 2014-10-01 Lovers wrote letters Letters crossed absence longing joy passion loss and heartbreak Sometimes letters were answered Sometimes not And sometimes not for years but then In 1948 in the exhausted aftermath of WWII the poets Paul Celan and Ingeborg Bachmann met in Vienna They began a difficult and intense but intermittent relationship which lasted until the early 1960s broken off only when Bachmann could no longer deal with Celan's increasing mental instability And yet despite the break the relationship continued to haunt both of them In Afterletters R Kolewe weaves together fragments of letters and other works of these two poets to give us a stunning sequence of poems that explore the traces of loss and love in language that breaks recombines and scintillates star crossed star covered star thrown

Ecstatic Émigré Claudia Keelan, 2018-01-30 A volume in the Poets on Poetry series which collects critical works by contemporary poets gathering together the articles interviews and book reviews by which they have articulated the poetics of a new generation

Hungarian Perspectives on the Western Canon László Bengi, Gábor Mezei, Ernő Kulcsár Szabó, 2017-05-11 In this collection Hungarian literature is read together with canonical works of the Western literary tradition The book studies the distinction between major and minor literatures showing that such parallel readings may highlight previously unknown components of the literary tradition The book does not hold traditional comparative methods based on verifiable mediations or transactions between national philologies and national literary narratives to be the exclusive standard of interpretation readings can concentrate on common surfaces and textual events instead This is what is meant by post comparative perspectives a term to indicate that the conditions of a comparative reading never precede the reading itself On this basis the present volume points at several possibilities of how a common ground between texts can be created especially because the chapters within it perform parallel readings in highly different ways

Religious Experience Revisited, 2016-09-07 Religious Experience Revisited explores a dilemma which has haunted the study of religion since William James Is religion rooted in experiences Is religion rooted in expressions How are experiences and expressions related The contributors to this international and interdisciplinary compilation explore the possibilities and the impossibilities of a hermeneutics of religion Combining theology and philosophy with biblical cultural historical and literary studies they examine how religious experiences and religious expressions have been entangled in the past and in the present These entanglements call for interdisciplinary conversations in which those who study experiences and those who study expressions can learn from each other in order to carve out important and instructive spaces for the study of religion

Justifying the Margins Pierre Joris,2009 In this collection of essays poet translator anthologist and critic Pierre Joris extends his nomad poetics to a remarkable zigzagging on the margins of twentieth and twenty first century poetry and poetics For Justifying the Margins refuses precisely to fill out spaces neatly to yield to straightened out pre set margins be they cultural literary linguistic or political Joris rather wanders through those spaces and thereby justifies the margins properly speaking His travel travails set off with absorbing explorations of writing as such traversing languages and crossing genres and seem to turn this collection into a marvelous group improvisation of texts which range from journal entries over lectures essayistic writing auto biographical notes translation obits and interview to Joris s outstanding and characteristically intense readings The author moreover brilliantly moves across and vindicates multiple fringes Joris s observation with respect to French literature for instance namely that the most interesting and explorative literary writing in French of the last fifty years has not come from Paris but from the periphery of the old colonial empire not only leads him to continually resurfacing meditations on North African and Arabic literature or the rerouted Surrealism of Unica Z rn s anagrams it also allows him to investigate the margins of English and American poetry in Douglas Oliver and Ronald Johnson or even to deftly re consider core figures such as Antonin Artaud Charles Olson and Paul Celan with in turn new offshoots in Jacques Derrida s pipe or Irving Petlin s paintings A fascinating travelogue and a truly valuable read Justifying the Margins is highly recommended to both the specialist and general reader interested in experimental art thought poetry and poetics in 1905 and died after apparently throwing himself under a train in December of 1937 Writing in intense emotional tones that swung between despair and hope Jozsef invigorated old poetic forms with a new freedom orchestrating his poems with fresh rhythmic patterns influenced by folk music's rhythms as well as their metrics But Jozsef was also influenced by Dadaist and other modernist ideas finding a voice that would synthesize the older cultural forms with the newer experiments

Sebastien, Your Son Claire Deveze, 2006 French writer Claire Deveze details the terrible sufferings of her best friend during the course of the tragic death of her son by cancer The loving distance of friendship allows for an intense description of events which would be impossible to bear perhaps if described by the mother of the dying child As it is the pains and joys of a close group of friends as they live through their friend's painful experiences are expressed beautifully in this loving tribute to the son Sebastien and the possibilities and limitations of friendship

A Moral Lesson Paul Éluard, 2007 Originally published in 1949 A Moral Lesson explores good and evil as slightly unpredictable forces which at times might be perceived as indistinguishable Yet Eluard explores the two with a determined effort to transform evil into good Through our perseverance we will render pain and error harmless This poetic dialogue stands as a magnificent testament to Eluard's poetry and his life

The Position of Things Adriano Spatola, 2008 One of the most important poets of the Italian neo-avant-garde Adriano Spatola and his poetic oeuvre have remained relatively obscure in English-speaking countries Now 20 years after Spatola's death noted translator Paul Vangelisti has gathered his poetry rethinking and re-translating it in a way that highlights this poet's great talent and his aesthetic and political engagement with the world around him
