Nothingness in Asian Philosophy Jeeloo Liu, Douglas Berger, 2014-06-13 A variety of crucial and still most relevant ideas about nothingness or emptiness have gained profound philosophical prominence in the history and development of a number of South and East Asian traditions including in Buddhism Daoism Neo Confucianism Hinduism Korean philosophy and the Japanese Kyoto School These traditions share the insight that in order to explain both the great mysteries and mundane facts about our experience ideas of nothingness must play a primary role This collection of essays brings together the work of twenty of the world's prominent scholars of Hindu Buddhist Daoist Neo Confucian Japanese and Korean thought to illuminate fascinating philosophical conceptualizations of nothingness in both classical and modern Asian traditions The unique collection offers new work from accomplished scholars and provides a coherent panoramic view of the most significant ways that nothingness plays crucial roles in Asian philosophy It includes both traditional and contemporary formulations sometimes putting Asian traditions into dialogue with one another and sometimes with classical and modern Western thought The result is a book of immense value for students and researchers in Asian and comparative philosophy Chapter 20 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Tuning the Rig Fred Herron, 2012-07-10 To tune the rig describes adjusting a ship's rigging the rig of a well tuned boat allows the sails to function well This task must be performed to ensure the best performance by the ship Tuning the Rig takes that metaphor as a guide for Catholic educators and administrators as well as for the larger church It argues from a variety of perspectives rooted in the Catholic imagination that the rig constantly needs to be re tuned to balance between visions of the church as teacher and learner Why should this matter to Catholic educators To Herron our understanding of the church as learner is at the heart of our understanding of ourselves as disciples One of the logical consequences of this era of baptismal consciousness is a rising awareness on the part of the laity that their task is not simply to pay pray and obey but to grow and journey in faith Herron s focus ranges from issues closely pertaining to Catholic schools to the larger questions of the Catholic imagination The underlying thread however is the challenge of maintaining the richness of the Catholic imagination of tuning the rig in changing times and the ordinary life of the church
