The Angels Key:

The Angel's Key Patricia Little, 2005 It should have been a fatal accident Amanda Poole believes her life is almost perfect She loves her job as curator of Pittock Mansion and Leland Worth has just asked her to marry him Then she inexplicably vanishes out of her car an instant before it crashes She is shaken but untouched except for certain strange and unwanted abilities that she now possesses And the fear that someone or something wants her dead He should have died in 1934 Michael Northwood plunges into the Willamette River his last memories of horrifying screams aboard the luxury liner Morro Castle as it floundered ablaze in a raging sea off the New York coastline over seventy years ago His one thought is to find his wife who sailed with him on the doomed ship An ancient stone may hold the key The threads that bind these two impossible events will stretch back to Amanda s troubled childhood to Michael s idyllic marriage and to lost legends of angels and demons As their nightmares become real as every belief is tested they find that all paths lead to the Angel s Key Will they learn its secret in time

The Destroyer and the Lamb Matthias Reinhard Hoffmann, 2005 Matthias Reinhard Hoffmann identifies an angelomorphic portrait of Christ in certain passages of Revelation and provides possible reasons for the inclusion of an angelomorphic Christology Angelomorphic Christology is not regarded as an isolated christological concept In turn the author compares angelomorphic Christology with the prominent Lamb Christology of Revelation A comparison of these concepts reveals that both Lamb and angelomorphic Christology serve the purpose of contrasting different functions of Christ The functions correspond with the implied perception of Christ by his followers on the one hand and his opponents on the other Accordingly Christ appears to be an eschatological juridical figure described in angelomorphic patterns to his opposition while he is perceived as salvific redeemer in form of the Lamb by those who believe in him Such a christological perspective draws on traditions from the Exodus narrative namely the features of the Passover Lamb and the Destroying Angel Further equality between God and Christ is established despite an angelomorphic portrait of Christ especially those passages describing Christ as the Lamb put him on par with God But also within visions with an angelomorphic description of Christ his status as superior to angels and as an equal to God is displayed
