Decoration of Houses a manual of interior design written by Edith Wharton with architect Ogden Codman was first published with heavy window curtains Victorian bric a brac and overstuffed furniture They argue that such rooms emphasize upholstery at the expense of proper space planning and architectural design and are therefore uncomfortable and rarely used Wharton and Codman advocated the creation of houses with rooms decorated with strong architectural wall and ceiling treatments accentuated by well suited furniture rooms based on simple classical design principles such as symmetry and proportion and a sense of architectural balance The Decoration of Houses is considered a seminal work and its success led to the emergence of professional decorators working in the manner advocated by its authors most notably Elsie de Wolfe The book was reprinted by The Mount and Rizzoli and in a hardcover facsimile in 2007
