Carolyn Lanchner

William De Kooning:

Willem de Kooning Carolyn Lanchner, 2011 Willem de Kooning was a pioneering figure among Abstract Expressionists one of the most influential champions of the dynamic new painting that brought New York to the center of the international scene in the 1950s This book features ten paintings and drawings by de Kooning selected from The Museum of Modern Art's substantial collection of his work Together they trace the artist's career illustrating his much heralded debut exhibition in 1948 his sensational Woman series of the 1950s and 1960s and the serene works he made late in life An essay by Carolyn Lanchner a former curator of painting and sculpture at the Museum accompanies each work illuminating its significance and placing it in its historical moment in the development of modern art Willem de Kooning Nonstop Rosalind E. Krauss, 2016-03-01 In the early 1950s Willem de Kooning's Woman I and subsequent paintings established him as a leading member of the abstract expressionist movement His wildly impacted brushstrokes and heavily encrusted surfaces baffled most critics who saw de Kooning's monstrous female image as violent aggressive and ultimately the product of a misogynistic mind In the image rich Willem de Kooning Nonstop Rosalind E Krauss counters this view with a radical rethinking of de Kooning's bold canvases and reveals his true artistic practices Krauss demonstrates that contrary to popular conceptions of de Kooning as an artist who painted chaotically only to finish abruptly he was in fact constantly reworking the same subject based on a compositional template This template informed all of his art and included a three part vertical structure the projection of his male point of view into the painting or sculpture and the near universal inclusion of the female form which was paired with her redoubled projection onto his work Krauss identifies these elements throughout de Kooning's oeuvre even in his paintings of highways boats and landscapes Woman is always there A thought provoking study by one of America's greatest art critics Willem de Kooning Nonstop revolutionizes our understanding of de Kooning and shows us what has always been hiding in plain sight in his work De Kooning Harry F. Gaugh, Willem De Kooning, 1983 Willem de Kooning had a restless probing creativity pushing on from one style to the next The battle between abstraction and figuration was essential to his art as he moved from the profound black and white abstractions of the 1940s to the ferocious Women of the 1950s through the later landscapes and the final lyrical abstractions This richly illustrated volume offers a perceptive and sympathetic view of an artist who made some of the greatest art of this century The variety the inventiveness the sheer quality of de Kooning's work demand our attention and reward us with visual riches Book jacket Willem De Kooning Sally Yard, 2007 A leading figure in the emergence of abstract expressionist painting in New York Willem de Kooning arrived in the United States in 1926 as a twenty two years old stowaway from Holland during the Depression years he was a dedicated visitor to the museums and galleries of Manhattan and did a brief stint as a WPA painter which was curtailed because he was not a citizen With resolute determination de Kooning ventured beyond the radical departures of cubism toward the visceral physicality of the abstractions that comprised his first one person exhibition in 1948 Five years later an exhibition of women painted in aggressive lashing gestures stunned contemporaries not only for the vehemence of the artist's attack but also for the evident reversal of direction yet across six decades the alternation and intertwining of abstraction and figuration remained fundamental to de Kooning's work 130 illustrations
