Innovations in Behavioural Health Architecture Stephen Verderber, 2018-01-19 WINNER OF A NAUTILUS 2018 SILVER MEDAL BOOK AWARD Innovations in Behavioural Health Architecture is the most comprehensive book written on this topic in more than 40 years It examines the ways in which healthcare architecture can contribute as a highly valued informational and reference source to the provision of psychiatric and addictive disorder treatment in communities around the world It provides an overview of the need for a new generation of progressively planned and designed treatment centres both inpatient and outpatient care environments and the advantages challenges and opportunities associated with meeting the burgeoning need for treatment settings of this type Additional chapters address the specifics of geriatric psychiatry and its architectural ramifications in light of the rapid aging of societies globally and provide a comprehensive compendium of planning and design considerations for these places in both inpatient and outpatient care contexts Finally the book presents an expansive and fully illustrated set of international case studies that express state of the art advancements in architecture for behavioural healthcare International Journal of Mental Health ,1996 Adbusters ,2003 Social Suffering in the Neoliberal Age Karen Soldatic,Louise St Guillaume,2022-04-27 This book provides a rich synthesis of research and theory of nascent and emergent critically engaged work examining changing welfare structures regimes and technologies and the social suffering that is generated in everyday lives By rigorously examining social security restructuring with the turn to austerity governance and its daily practices of managing regulating and subordinating individuals peoples and communities this collection delineates the machinery of state power and logics designed to manage contain and control the lives of some of the most poorest and marginalised citizens who are reliant on social welfare income payments A core strength of the book is first its unpacking of austerity governance across diverse communities and second the elevation of community resistance and mobilisation against the very measures of austerity Combined the work maps out the logics of state power and everyday practices of embedded contestation and confrontation Using the case study of Australia to discuss sociolegal recategorisations automation of welfare governance technologies of policy design and delivery conditionality and systems of penalisation this book will be of interest to all
