Target Dresden:

Target Dresden Alan Cooper, 2005-09 On the night of February 13 14 796 Lancasters and 9 Mosquitoes of RAF Bomber Command dropped 1 478 tons of high explosive and 1 182 tons of incendiaries on the city A firestorm developed which led to large areas of the city being burned out At the time of the attack Dresden was crowded with refugees fleeing the advancing Soviet Army resulting in between 40 000 and 50 000 casualties On the morning of the 14th a second attack was carried out by the United States Army Air Force with two further US attacks mounted on February 15th and on March 2nd 1945 Why so close to the end of the war should a beautiful city a center for fine art and porcelain with arguably no tactical significance have been so completely obliterated by the British US Air Forces Was Dresden a legitimate target or was it merely a matter that the British and Americans wanted to demonstrate to the advancing Russians the power of their combined air forces Target Dresden chronicles the development of bombing from the earliest days through the Zeppelin and Gotha raids of the First World War to the development of strategic bombing of WWII and examines how it affected post war thinking Packed with facts Target Dresden gives the story behind the raids which were the most controversial conventional bombing attacks of World War Two

Target Dresden Alan Cooper, 1995 The Myth of the Good War Jacques R. Pauwels, 2015-03-06 In the spirit of historians Howard Zinn Gwynne Dyer and Noam Chomsky Jacques Pauwels focuses on the big picture Like them he seeks to find the real reasons for the actions of great powers and great leaders Familiar Second World War figures from Adolf Hitler to Franklin D Roosevelt and Joseph Stalin are portrayed in a new light in this book The decisions of Hitler and his Nazi government to go to war were not those of madmen Britain and the US were not allies fighting shoulder to shoulder with no motive except ridding the world of the evils of Nazism In Pauwels account the actions of the United States during the war years were heavily influenced by American corporations IBM GM Ford ITT and Standard Oil of New Jersey now called Exxon who were having a very profitable war selling oil armaments and equipment to both sides with money gushing everywhere Rather than analyzing Pearl Harbor as an unprovoked attack Pauwels notes that US generals boasted of their success in goading Japan into a war the Americans badly wanted One chilling account describes why President Truman insisted on using nuclear bombs against Japan when there was no military need to do so Another reveals that Churchill instructed his bombers to flatten Dresden and kill thousands when the war was already won to demonstrate British American strength to Stalin Leaders usually cast in a heroic mould in other books about this war look quite different here Nations that claimed a higher purpose in going to war are shown to have had far less idealistic motives The Second World War as Jacques Pauwels tells it was a good war only in myth The reality is far messier and far more revealing of the evils that come from conflicts between great powers and great leaders seeking to enrich their countries and dominate the world

Flyers Far Away Michael Enright, 2025-06-06 First one volume history covering Australian airmen in World War II The Myriad Chronicles Johannes Rammund De Balliel-Lawrora, 2010 SNYNOPSIS Many people may not understand the reasoning of this documentary and why I am rehashing the expulsions the after war tragedies that confronted a defeated nation the hundreds of internment camps occupied by Germans and German Americans the treatment of German Prisoners of war upon the conclusion of hostilities the enforcement of the Morgenthau Plan and the Ben s decrees regarding the mass murders of over two million Sudetenlanders Prussians and other Eastern European Germans I thought about this and decided that when certain people whether they be American British Russian French and others stop their crucifying those of German extraction then and only then would it not be necessary to publish this book The word Nazi is archaic and does not apply to more than ninety percent of all Germans Most Germans knew nothing about the Holocaust except what was recently explained to them They knew nothing about the internment camps where Germans and German Americans were interned during the war were unaware of the expulsions of millions of ethnic Germans from their historical homelands the torture rape and murder of millions of innocent non combatant women and children after hostilities had ended and the deliberate starvation to death of more than one million eight hundred thousand German POW s after the war in complete disregard to the Hague Geneva and other conventions This documentary is not singling out others that may or may not be guilty of these atrocities It is only the truth that we seek to be put into the history books and other texts not the made up revisions of Arrogant Revisionists Much of the information published herewith is not even known by most Germans or people of other ethnic entities This documentary therefore is one of clarity reality and truth It needs to be known Everyone Germans and non Germans alike should read this book so at least they will know the other side of the story

Targeting the Third Reich Robert S. Ehlers,2009 Argues that air intelligence played a crucial but largely overlooked role in the successful execution of the Allied bombing campaigns against the Third Reich which in turn proved a decisive factor in both ending the war in Europe and ending it as soon as it did

Zwinger Palace, Dresden John Man,1990 The Zwinger palace a baroque palace in Dresden was originally built in the 18th century at the behest of Augustus the Strong and was extensively restored after World War II This book examines the original architecture the work of restoration which aimed to replicate the original style and the paintings porcelain and scientific instruments that the palace houses

Operating Reactors Licensing Actions Summary ,1983 Carl A. Spaatz and the Air War in Europe Richard G. Davis,1993 Offers the first detailed review of Carl A Spaatz as a commander Examines how the highest ranking U S airman in the European Theater of Operations of World War II viewed the war worked with the British and wielded the formidable air power at his disposal Identifies specifically those aspects of his leadership that proved indispensable to the Allied Victory over Nazi Germany Chapters Carrying the Flame From West Point to London 1891 1942 Tempering the Blade The North African Campaign 1942 1943 Mediterranean Interlude From Pantelleria to London 1943 The Point of the Blade Strategic Bombing and the Cross Channel Invasion 1944 and The Mortal Blow From Normandy to Berlin 1944 1945 Maps charts and b w photos

The Path Finder Force Martin W. Bowman,2016-03-30 Charged with the formidable task of locating and marking German targets for attack by the main force of Bomber Command the Path Finder Force 8 PFF Group and those in 5 Group was perhaps the most experienced and highly trained elite group created within the Royal Air Force during World War II Its aircrew members were almost entirely volunteers and despite the terrifying odds against any individual or complete crew ever completing the sixty sorties tour of operations with the PFF the most feared punishment was to forfeit their coveted Path Finder wings and be posted away to other units This remarkable evocation of a remarkable force is made up largely of narrative and photographs from the men who flew with or were an integral part of the PFF They alone are best qualified to recount the Path Finder story While the subject matter herein largely covers the four engined Stirlings Halifaxes and Lancasters and twin engined Mosquitoes of 8 PFF Group the Path Finding techniques used by 5 Group are not forgotten and there are two chapters detailing the work of the Oboe Mosquitoes and other markers in support of the night and day Main Force raids on German and Italian cities and individual targets in the Reich This book is a fitting tribute to the PFF and in particular to the crews who failed to return from the PFF s many operations

The Liberty Bell ,1976 Bombs, Cities, and Civilians Conrad C. Crane,1993 As the might and capabilities of American airpower have grown during the last 60 years so has the controversy about its use in the intentional and indiscriminate wartime bombardment of civilians In Bombs Cities and Civilians Conrad Crane maintains that for the most part American airmen in World War II remained committed to precision bombing doctrine Instead of attacking densely populated urban areas simply to erode civilian morale Army Air Forces adhered to a policy that emphasised targeting key industrial and military sites He demonstrates that while the British Germans and Japanese routinely conducted indiscriminate aerial bombardment of enemy cities American airmen consistently stayed with daylight raids against carefully selected targets especially in Europe Daytime precision missions were usually far more dangerous than night area attacks but such Army Air Forces tactics increased bombing efficiency and also reduced the risk of civilian casualties

Hiroshima Nagasaki Paul Ham,2011-11-01 With the world today on the brink of nuclear war and Japan again in the nuclear firing line award winning author Paul Ham describes what happened last time an atomic bomb fell on two cities The atomic bombs dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki killed more than 100 000 instantly mostly women children and the elderly Many hundreds of thousands more succumbed to their horrific injuries later or slowly perished of radiation related sickness Yet the bombs were our least abhorrent choice American leaders claimed at the time and still today most people believe they ended the Pacific War and saved millions of American and Japanese lives Ham challenges this view arguing that the bombings when Japan was on its knees were the culmination of a strategic Allied air war on enemy civilians that began in Germany and had till then exacted its most horrific death tolls in Dresden and Tokyo The war in Europe may have ended but it continued in the Pacific against a regime still looking to save face Ham describes the political manoeuvring and the scientific race to build the new atomic weapon He also gives powerful witness to its destruction through the eyes of eighty survivors from 12 year olds forced to work in war factories to wives and children who faced it alone reminding us that these two cities were full of ordinary people who suddenly out of a clear blue summer sky felt the sun fall on their heads No Prouder Place David L. Bashow, 2005 No Prouder Place provides a fresh and objective look at the bombing campaign by emphasizing the highly significant role it played in defeating the Axis powers It is a story of sustained courage in the face of daunting odds as well as a celebration of the Canadian aircrew experience and its place in wartime Bomber Command The text contains scores of original recollections from the veterans themselves interwoven with material from primary archival and secondary sources It is illustrated with original art work by Ron Lowry including colour side profiles of selected Bomber Command from RCAF units and Luftwaffe aircraft Bomber Harris Dudley Saward, 1985 Tulsa Journal of Comparative & International Law, 2002 The Middle East, Abstracts and Index, 2003 The Strategic Bombing of Germany, 1940-1945 Alan Levine, 1992-07-22 This book is the only full scale account of the strategic air offensive against Germany published in the last twenty years and is the only one that treats the British and the Americans with parity Much of what Levine writes about British operations will be unfamiliar to American readers He has stressed the importance of winning air superiority and the role of escort fighters in strategic bombing and has given more attention to the German side than most writers on air warfare have Levine gets past a simple account of what we did to them and describes the target systems and German countermeasures in detail providing exact yet dramatic accounts of the great bomber operations the Ruhr dams Ploesti and Regensburg and Schweinfurt The book is broad guaged touching many matters from the development of bombing doctrine before the war to the technical development of the Luftwaffe and the RAF jets and V weapons to the role of the heavy bombers in supporting land and sea operations Levine stresses the impact of bombing on the war and generally endorses the strategic air campaign as worthwhile and effective But he concludes that many mistakes were made by the Allies both the British and the Americans in tactics the development of equipment and in the selection of targets Levine sees strategic bombing as a powerful tool that was often misused particularly when the doctrine of area bombing flourished Scholars students and buffs interested in World War II and or the history of aviation will find this study of great interest INIS Atomindex, 1988 Materials Performance, 1979
