English language learners will succeed Teaching Learners of English in Mainstream Classrooms (K-8) Linda New Levine, Mary Lou McCloskey, 2009 Teaching Learners of English in Mainstream Classrooms is a unique resource designed to help K-8 classroom teachers integrate language learning into the content curriculum. This book helps teachers teach their grade-level curriculum even though they may have English language learners in their classrooms. By using the strategies provided, teachers can promote content achievement for all of their students. Specifically written for content teachers, Linda New Levine and Mary Lou McCloskey's clear and friendly writing style emphasizes practical application of known second language learning principles. The authors offer classroom teachers practical strategies and tools to integrate content and language learning, accelerating the academic achievement of their students. Techniques for developing reading, writing, and speaking skills in the content areas are also emphasized.

Language Learners in the English Classroom Douglas Fisher, Carol Rothenberg, Nancy Frey, 2007 Provides practical, research-based strategies for how to integrate teaching of vocabulary, grammar, fluency, and comprehension into the grade-level content of middle and high school English classrooms for English language learners.

PreK-12 English Language Proficiency Standards TESOL International Association, 2006 The revised PreK-12 English Language Proficiency Standards build on the World-Class Instructional Design and Assessments (WIDA) Consortium's English Language Proficiency Standards for English Language Learners in Kindergarten through Grade 12 (Wisconsin 2004). The WIDA Consortium is a group of ten states formed in 2002 with federal monies that has developed comprehensive English language proficiency standards. This volume also uses grade-level clusters that reflect current educational configurations in the United States. Each of the five language proficiency standards is divided into the four language domains of listening, speaking, reading, and writing. The five levels of language proficiency reflect characteristics of language performance at each developmental stage and include starting (L1), emerging (L2), developing (L3), expanding (L4), and bridging (L5).
