Gustafson, 1974 With his earlier writing James M Gustafson established himself as a highly original thinker both practical and theologically sound In Theology and Christian Ethics he develops guidelines for Christian living that balance spiritual and moral theologies and investigates the ethical issues in our technological society particularly in biomedical development and genetic engineering Theological ethics differs from humanistic philosophical or secular ethics because it begins and ends with a commitment to God Gustafson explains these differences and relates his concepts to contemporary Christian living in the first part of the book

Part two includes a substantial exploration of the biblical basis of ethics that is fundamentally sound. He also stresses the unity between the spiritual and moral life and provides a Christian perspective for moral discernment that is significant to the understanding and practice of ethical Christian life. In the final section of the book, Gustafson considers ethics and the sciences including the social sciences. Publisher: Scriptures Hebrew and Christian: Christian Scriptures, Edward Totterson Bartlett, John Punnett Peters, 1892. The Christian treasury (and missionary review), 1871. Record of Christian Work, Alexander McConnell, William Revell Moody, Arthur Percy Fitt, 1892. Includes music: The Local Preachers' Magazine and Christian Family Record, 1879. Commodified Health Care and Lay Catholic Social Spirituality, Vivencio Ballano, 2025-07-01. This book establishes a lay social spirituality for health care practitioners that pursues the Catholic Church's social teachings on the preferential option for the poor, structural sin, and health care reform to address today's commodification of the health care system where maximizing profit and patient's capacity to pay become the primary consideration. Applying a sociotheological approach that combines the perspectives of modern sociology, Catholic social doctrines, and Pope Francis's inductive synodal theology, as well as drawing from secondary literature, media reports, and church documents, it argues for the necessity of a holistic interdisciplinary and synodal lay Catholic social spirituality that is informed by Pope Francis's synodality. Presenting sociological research for health care practitioners to uphold options for the poor in public health, it envisions a lay spirituality that participates in civil society's health care reform agenda at the macro level and practices Christian and Ignatian discernment at the micro level as its main behavioral components. This book appeals to Christian health care actors, entrepreneurs, and spiritual directors, as well as scholars and students in sociology, religion, moral theology, bioethics, and spirituality. The Great Controversy Between Christ and Satan During the Christian Dispensation, Ellen G. White, 1888. The Christian's Manual. A Practical Guide to the Study of the Emended New Testament, William Cartan, 1876.
