The New Sporting Magazine , 1833      Imagining the Human Condition in Medieval Rome Kristin B. Aavitsland, 2017-07-05 The first monograph on the Vita Humana cycle at Tre Fontane this book includes an overview of the medieval history of the Roman Cistercian abbey and its architecture as well as a consideration of the political and cultural standing of the abbey both within Papal Rome and within the Cistercian order Furthermore it considers the commission of the fresco cycle the circumstances of its making and its position within the art historical context of the Roman Duecento Examining the unusual blend of images in the Vita Humana cycle this study offers a more nuanced picture of the iconographic repertoire of medieval art Since the discovery of the frescoes in the 1960s the iconographic programme of the cycle has remained mysterious and an adequate analysis of the Vita Humana cycle as a whole has so far been lacking Kristin B Aavitsland covers this gap in the scholarship on Roman art circa 1300 and also presents the first interpretative discussion of the frescoes that is up to date with the architectural investigations undertaken in the monastery around 2000 Aavitsland proposes a rationale behind the conception of the fresco cycle thereby providing a key for understanding its iconography and shedding new light on thirteenth century Cistercian culture

Fort Richardson, Resumption of Year-round Firing Opportunities , 2010      Yesterday'S Reflections Albert F. Schmid, 2013-02-22 In Yesterdays Reflections author Albert F Schmid invites us to consider the various holidays that are celebrated throughout the year He provides interesting facts about each holiday and includes the religious origins of them where relevant because many of our holidays have a religious connection He also explains important points about the holidays such as why Easter is always on a Sunday and why Thanksgiving is always on the fourth Thursday in November In addition he includes devotionals on topics ranging from Contentment to God Is Where Love Is Each devotional includes the pertinent Scriptures a story to illustrate the point being made and Schmid's comments For example The Rear View Mirror tells the story of Grace who remembers her father's advice for driving in the snow find a snow plow and follow it When she encounters a blizzard she does this an hour later the driver stops to make certain she is all right as he had plowed a large parking lot was moving on to the next business and was concerned when he noticed that she was following him We often become comfortable thinking that we can just follow the snow plow when in truth we need to learn to trust God and let Him lead the way Yesterdays Reflections is an inspiring collection that reminds us that we are Christ's ambassadors and that God expects each of us to live and act as though He is making His appeal through us The best sermons are not preached they are lived
