The seventeenth century painter Nicolas Poussin founded the French Classical tradition working the majority of his career in Rome. He specialised in history paintings depicting scenes from the Bible, ancient history and mythology which are notable for their narrative clarity and dramatic force. Poussin was a man of contrasts: sensual yet austere and intellectual, prizing reason, order and dispassion above all else. His art is a reconciliation and synthesis of these traits, setting an example of what would become the standard for a long tradition of academic art continuing until the end of the nineteenth century. His influence was far-reaching, winning the approval of the Neoclassical masters, the Post Impressionists and even modernists like Pablo Picasso.
