The Drifting Away:

Drifting Away , Drifting Away , Give Us This Day Devotionals, Volume 8 Charles Erlandson,2025-12-16 Give Us This Day is a unique daily devotional commentary for the entire New Testament based on the ancient method called lectio divina Lectio divina or divine reading is the method used by the early church and countless Christians through the centuries to read the Scriptures to form and transform the soul more than merely to inform the mind Give Us This Day deals in depth with entire passages and their contexts Rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about Charles Erlandson has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament Erlandson writes for the whole person he is not afraid to use his sense of humor and he carefully relates the Bible not only to the individual's life but also to the life of the church At the end of each day's devotional an appropriate prayer is offered as well as points for further reflection on the day's lesson Each devotional concludes with a suggested resolution to put into effect what the Spirit has stirred up in the heart of the reader during the course of his reading meditation and prayer

The Migration of Constitutional Ideas Sujit Choudhry,2007-01-18 The migration of constitutional ideas across jurisdictions is one of the central features of contemporary constitutional practice The increasing use of comparative jurisprudence in interpreting constitutions is one example of this In this 2007 book leading figures in the study of comparative constitutionalism and comparative constitutional politics from North America Europe and Australia discuss the dynamic processes whereby constitutional systems influence each other They explore basic methodological questions which have thus far received little attention and examine the complex relationship between national and supranational constitutionalism an issue of considerable contemporary interest in Europe The migration of constitutional ideas is discussed from a variety of methodological perspectives comparative law comparative politics and cultural studies of law and contributors draw on case studies from a wide variety of jurisdictions Australia Hungary India South Africa the United Kingdom the United States and Canada

A Case for Mixed-audience with Reference to the Warning Passages in the Book of Hebrews C. Adrian Thomas,2008 A Case for Mixed Audience with Reference to the Warning Passages in the Book of Hebrews discusses the nature of the warnings in Hebrews and how these warnings relate to the theological question of the eternal security of believers The main argument is that these warnings are intended to target a particular segment of the author's community about whose appropriation of and subsequent attitude toward the Christian message he was deeply concerned That is to say while the book of Hebrews is addressed as a message of encouragement to the community as a whole its warnings are aimed at a certain element in the community whose salvation is threatened by a possible dangerous course of action The book implies that while the author is persuaded that the majority in the community are genuine believers there are some about whose salvation he doubts hence the case for a mixed audience What is threatened therefore is not a salvation already possessed but the salvation of those in danger of coming up short Theologically the work falls within the sphere of the Calvinistic Arminian debate regarding the assurance of salvation and the perseverance of the saints It argues strongly for the Calvinistic position but does so within the confines of the discipline of biblical studies and lends extensive exegetical support to the Calvinistic position on the warning passages The book is highly recommended for Bible College and seminary students and professors as well as pastors and lay leaders who must give answers to their parishoners on those tough warning passages in Hebrews
