WE DO

Case Studies Alien Invasion Fiction:

Puzzling Stories Steven Willemsen, Miklós Kiss, 2022-08-12 Many films and novels defy our ability to make sense of the plot While puzzling storytelling strange incongruities inviting enigmas and persistent ambiguities have been central to the effects of many literary and cinematic traditions a great deal of contemporary films and television series bring such qualities to the mainstream but wherein lies the attractiveness of perplexing works of fiction This collected volume offers the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and trans medial approach to the question of cognitive challenge in narrative art bringing together psychological philosophical formal historical and empirical perspectives from leading scholars across these fields

UFOs and Abductions David Michael Jacobs, 2000 Examining the nature of UFO evidence the authors present a primer for scholars skeptics and others uneasy about investigating the field of UFOs The volume also brings together three bestselling authors David M Jacobs Budd Hopkins and Pulitzer Prize winner John Mack widely known for their writings on the controversial alien abduction phenomenon

Writing and Responsibility Carl Tighe, 2005-07-12 In a world where literary scandals often end up in court the issue of responsibility in writing has never been more important In this groundbreaking study Carl Tighe asks the questions every writer needs to consider What is it that writers do Are they responsible for all the uses to which their writing might be put Or no more responsible than their readers How are a writer s responsibilities compromised or defined by commercial or political pressures or by notions of tradition or originality How does a writer s audience affect their responsibilities Are these the same for writers in all parts of the world under all political and social systems The first part of this book defines responsibility and looks at its relation to ideas such as power accuracy kitsch and political correctness The second part examines how particular writers have dealt with these issues through a series of often controversial case studies including American Psycho Crash and The Tin Drum Writing and Responsibility encourages its readers to interrogate the choices they make as writers A fascinating look at the public consequences of the private act of writing Carl Tighe s book is a must read for everyone who writes or studies writing

Science, Myth, and the Fictional Creation of Alien Worlds Albert Wendland, 1985

Women Musicians in Victorian Fiction, 1860-1900 Phyllis Weliver, 2016-07-28 Over the first half of the nineteenth century writers like Austen and Bront confined their critiques to satirical portrayals of women musicians Later however a marked shift occurred with the introduction of musical female characters where were positively to be feared First published in 2000 this book examines the reasons for this shift in representations of female musicians in Victorian fiction from 1860 1900 Focusing on changing gender roles musical practices and the framing of both of these scientific discourses the book explores how fictional notions of female musicians diverged from actual trends in music making This book will be of interest to those studying nineteenth century literature and music

Posthumanism, Cognition, and Cyborg Spectatorship Anna Batori, 2026-03-30 This book argues that contemporary digital blockbusters function as laboratories for posthuman cognition that transform spectatorship into a cyborg mode in which perception memory and agency are distributed across the cinematic canvas the diegetic bodies of characters the formal operations of film style and the embodied cognition of the spectator Drawing on posthumanist theory and the framework of 4E cognition it introduces four interlinked concepts embodied and frozen module cognition amalgamated aesthetics and the cybokinetic frame to explain how film form trains attention sensorimotor coupling and cognitive adaptation Methodologically the study combines close textual analysis with attention and perception research incorporating formal measures ASL MSL VAI and advocating for experimental follow ups using eye tracking pupillometry and fMRI EEG studies Through case studies including Blonde Nope Inception RoboCop Pacific Rim and Iron Man the book traces how aesthetic strategies sustain or fracture embodied engagement under conditions of sensory and informational excess Ultimately it redefines the digital blockbuster as an active cognitive technology that both reflects and reconfigures twenty first century perception The book is aimed at film and media scholars cognitive scientists exploring neurocinematics and enactive approaches advanced students and filmmakers who seek guidance on visual design Ghost Stories for Darwin

Banu Subramaniam,2014-10-15 In a stimulating interchange between feminist studies and biology Banu Subramaniam explores how her dissertation on flower color variation in morning glories launched her on an intellectual odyssey that engaged the feminist studies of sciences in the experimental practices of science by tracing the central and critical idea of variation in biology Subramaniam reveals the histories of eugenics and genetics and their impact on the metaphorical understandings of difference and diversity that permeate common understandings of differences among people exist in contexts that seem distant from the so called objective hard sciences Journeying into interdisciplinary areas that range from the social history of plants to speculative fiction Subramaniam uncovers key relationships between the life sciences women s studies evolutionary and invasive biology and the history of ecology and how ideas of diversity and difference emerged and persist in each field Peace Studies Consortium on Peace Research. The Encyclopedia of Science Fiction Peter Nicholls,1979 Science-fiction Studies , Alien Theory Patricia Monk,2006-06-15 From the early days of pulp magazines to contemporary works of science fiction the subject of the alien has been a fertile and enduring if not also the most vital element of the genre In Alien Theory author Patricia Monk asserts that the creation of the alien in short fiction contributes substantially to humanity s understanding of its present status and future potential in the universe By employing a Jungian and archetypal approach to these stories Monk attempts to direct the attention of readers to the significance of the vast body of imaginative fiction about the alien arguing that studying the alien will reveal why this archetype is necessary in the development of humanity's understanding of its own intrinsic nature as a sapient being When a science fiction writer writes about aliens Monk asserts he or she is saying something that can and should be taken seriously by readers Furthermore it is being expressed in a particular story telling mode that deserves to be treated with respect By discussing the creation of the form of the science fictional alien its psyche and the context in which aliens and humans interact Monk brings into focus a topic that has not been given the rightful discussion it deserves In addition to examining the alien in the science fiction short story novella and novelette Monk evaluates its role in pre postmodernist and postmodernist criticism and theory The author also draws on relevant writings by editors writers and fans including editorial letter columns and reviews to place the stories in the context of science fiction By drawing on all of these sources Alien Theory brings into focus a topic that will be of interest not only to academics and students but also to the general reader
