Neoliberal Feminism and the Discourse of Self-Improvement Giuliana Ferri, 2026-04-30 Neoliberal Feminism and the Discourse of Self Improvement utilises feminist critical discourse analysis to examine the language and narratives within selfhelp literature targeted at women Giuliana Ferri critically explores the discourse of self improvement focusing on how neoliberal values of empowerment and individual fulfilment have been co opted by elite feminism as a technology of the self She unpacks how this discourse constructs an idealised image of the empowered woman one who is portrayed as capable of overcoming patriarchy through the affirmation of innate strength and resilience Drawing on Marxist feminism and feminist social reproduction theory the book highlights how neoliberal feminism markets women as entrepreneurs badass feminists and successful working mothers all while obscuring the realities of increasing work precarization and flexibilisation in post industrial societies Through its feminist critical discourse analysis the book reveals how these seemingly empowering narratives shift the responsibility for systemic change onto individuals rather than positioning feminism as a collective anti capitalist movement for liberation By integrating applied linguistics with Marxist feminism and social reproduction theory this text provides a unique interdisciplinary perspective making it a key reading for scholars and students of language gender and economic systems

Margaret Atwood's Dystopian Fiction Sławomir Kuźnicki, 2017-05-11 This volume details Margaret Atwood's dystopian novels through the themes of the ambivalent ethics of science and technology the position of women in the male dominated world and the ambiguous role played by religion and spirituality The book's unique and original approach places Atwood's fiction within the contemporary world with all the problems of our fast changing reality Furthermore it provides an excellent reading of her dystopias in a broader humanist context with an emphasis on the social cultural and political issues that have been important for both her the writer and us the readers

Inclusive Young Adult Fiction Melanie Ramdarshan Bold, 2019-01-04 This book examines diversity or the lack thereof in young adult fiction YA publishing It focuses on cultural hegemony in the United Kingdom and explores how literary culture aimed at young adults reproduces and perpetuates racial and ethnic cultural hierarchies Diversity is described by the We Need Diverse Books project as all diverse experiences including but not limited to LGBTQIA Native people of color gender diversity people with disabilities and ethnic cultural and religious minorities This study focuses on people of colour While previous studies have looked at the representation of ethnic minorities in books for children and young adults this book examines the experiences of own voice cultural producers that create a counter narrative Specifically this book will investigate the output and experiences of British young adult fiction authors of colour BAME authors published in the UK during the period 2006 2016 drawing upon semi structured interviews with a sample of authors
