Time for Life John P. Robinson, 1997 The Changing Rhythms of American Family Life Suzanne M. Bianchi, John P. Robinson, Melissa A. Milke, 2006-07-13 Using time diary data from surveys of American parents over the last four decades Changing Rhythms of American Family Life finds that despite increased workloads outside of the home mothers today spend at least as much time interacting with their children as mothers did decades ago and perhaps even more Unexpectedly the authors find the increase in mothers time at work has not resulted in an overall decline in sleep or leisure time Rather mothers have made time for both work and family by sacrificing time spent doing housework and by increased multi tasking

BOOK JACKET Hitting Home Gloria H. Albrecht,2002-10-16 Carefully documents the growing abandonment by business and government of their social responsibility to sustain the well being of families Social Change in America Patricia C. Becker,2006 Updated for 2006 Social Change in America is a fascinating and fact filled overview of how American society has changed and evolved in recent times Topics covered include family life work and employment housing wealth and poverty education health crime volunteer activity religion and religious affiliation politics and more Busier Than Ever! Charles Darrah,James Freeman,J.A. English-Lueck,2007-03-22 Learn why we are busy how busyness is affecting American families and lives and what real people are doing about it Taking Parenting Public Cornel West,Sylvia Ann Hewlett,Nancy Rankin,2002-02-05 Taking Parenting Public makes a compelling case that parenting has become dangerously undervalued in America today It calls for a new investment both personal and public into the work of raising children and argues that we are all stockholders in the next generation With a foreword by Sylvia Ann Hewlett and Cornel West Taking Parenting Public crosses boundaries to bring together thinkers from diverse fields spanning the political spectrum It features contributions from distinguished experts in economics political science public policy child development public health history and the media While recent books have focused on working mothers or absent fathers Taking Parenting Public is the first volume to take a comprehensive look at the common struggles of parents These essays go beyond the usual calls for more and better child care and other strategies of parent replacement to offer fresh ideas for parent replenishment ways of putting mothers and fathers back into the lives of their children not only as economic providers but also as emotional and moral providers For more information visit the National Parenting Association Web site Proceedings New Zealand Geographical Society. Conference,1999 When Mommy and Daddy Get Home Jill Kathleen Arnold,2008 This paper examines the impact of income and shift work on parent child interaction so as to understand how income and a challenging work arrangement affect familial time poverty Specifically I study the parent child interactions of shift work and nonshift work parents in married dual earner households across the income spectrum I analyze data from the first wave 1987 88 of the National Survey of Families and Households to determine effects of shift work and income independent of and interacting with each other on the odds that parents will spend time with their children during meals and other activities My findings suggest that shift work parents in married dual earner households are as likely to spend time with their children as nonshift work parents in married dual earner households across all income levels The Challenge of Affluence Avner Offer,2006 A detailed reasoned and persuasive critique of modern consumer society in Britain and the United States since the Second World War which powerfully questions the assumption that freedom of choice necessarily maximizes individual and social well being The Journal of Psychohistory ,2000 Everyday Writing Center Anne Ellen Geller,2007 In a landmark collaboration five co authors develop a theme of ordinary disruptions the everyday as a source of provocative learning moments that can liberate both student writers and writing center staff At the same time the authors parlay Etienne Wenger's concept of community of practice into an ethos of a dynamic learner centered pedagogy that is especially well suited to the peculiar teaching situation of the writing center They push themselves and their field toward deeper more significant research more self conscious teaching Living Outside the Box Barbara Jean Brock,2007 A study on the positives of limiting and eliminating TV time by Barbara Brock The Clarinet ,1998 Gender and Law Katharine T. Bartlett,Deborah L. Rhode,2006 Instructors choose Gender and the Law Theory Doctrine Commentary for a thorough analysis of gender and law through several distinct perspectives which include formal equality substantive equality nonsubordination theory difference theory autonomy and non essentialism going far beyond traditional gender issues to draw cases theory and commentary from many different areas of the law such as employment law criminal law constitutional law family law civil procedure legal ethics property law and contracts explaining to students the complex ways in which laws are said to be gendered unique Putting Theory into Practice problems at the end of each section which allow students to apply the legal and theoretical tools to cutting edge issues The Fourth Edition keeps pace with important developments updated material on women in the legal profession and legal education the text contains updates of most important new cases and theoretical insights relating to employment law Title IX criminal sentencing welfare and Social Security reform affirmative action teenage pregnancy gay and lesbian rights cases statistics commentary and empirical studies of the law in action appear in the materials on sexual harassment domestic violence and rape important cases include Goodridge v Mass Nevada v Hibbs Lawrence v Texas and Jespersen v Harrah's more material on international law in the area of rape and global trafficking Sociology of Ageing Gavin J. Andrews,Ajaya Kumar Sahoo,Sebastian Irudaya Rajan,2009 Over the past thirty years the sociological study of ageing has progressed from being a narrowly focused modestly sized problem orientated sub field of disciplinary inquiry to its current status as a distinct extremely wide ranging endeavor that deals with many aspects of older peoples economic social and cultural lives This volume brings together a broad range of theoretical essays and specific case studies by eminent scholars in the field Sociology of Ageing A Reader will be a useful resource for not only sociology students and professional sociologists but also for those based in social anthropology psychology geography population studies politics and cultural studies Recreation Trends and Markets John Robert Kelly,Rodney Benson Warnick,1999 Contents Looking ahead A framework for projections Recreation activities Team sports Fitness activities Outdoor resource activities Water based activities Winter activities Travel activities Home and local activities Index Workplace Sabbaticals -- Bonus Or Entitlement? Daniel Kramer,2001-05-30 Shows that workplace sabbatical programs have produced greater benefits than costs and that they could be spread to most of the American work force in public and private sectors with simple amendments to the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 Rebuts arguments that opponents of workplace sabbat The Journal of Economic Perspectives ,2006 This journal attempts to fill a gap between the general
