Titanic Poster:

The Titanic in Print and on Screen D. Brian Anderson, 2014-12-09 Titanic scholars contend that the demise of the unsinkable ship left more behind than a memory of April 15 1912 as an important point in history Through books films stories and songs the archetypal shipwreck has endured as a metaphor for the perils of mankind's hubris and the fallibility of technology In 1985 the discovery of the long missing wreckage two miles below the surface of the Atlantic revitalized interest in the Titanic and spawned a new generation of books films and for the first time websites and computer games James Cameron's blockbuster Titanic became the biggest movie of all time and engendered still greater popular interest in the tragic event This bibliography is a survey of the immense volume of literary dramatic and commercial endeavors that came out of history's most compelling shipwreck Organized by genre in accessible categories and short entries the book includes Titanic inspired documentaries narrative films children's books histories short stories novels plays articles essays software websites poems and songs Each entry includes a brief review bibliographic information and the technical details of the specific source The reviews include subjective analysis designed to reflect the usefulness of the source and to be of benefit to researchers and scholars Five appendices include lists of the actors appearing in more than one Titanic film brief film and television appearances of the Titanic films never or not yet released books that survived the wreck and books written by passengers

Titanic Anton Gill, Transworld Publishers, 2013-09-03 A fascinating look at the making of the Titanic in vivid colorful detail A skilled workforce of thousands spent years building the ship in a remarkable feat of design and engineering From the engine room to the ball room here is the story of the riveters engineers electricians carpenters cabinet makers and artisans who designed built and fitted the ship of dreams

Sinascapes Gary G. Xu, 2007 Sinascapes Contemporary Chinese Cinema is one of the most comprehensive studies of transnational Chinese language films at the turn of the millennium Gary Xu combines a close reading of contemporary movies from China Taiwan and Hong Kong with an intimate look into the transnational Chinese film industry based on his working relationship with filmmakers He coins the word sinascapes to reflect on the intersection between Chinese cinema and global cultural production referring to cinematic representations of ethnic Chinese people around the globe Sinascapes describes contemporary Chinese cinema as a global network and a group of contact zones where ideologies clash new identities emerge through both border crossings and resistance to globalization and visual innovations and progressive visions become possible General readers film enthusiasts and critics alike will benefit from Xu's discussion of popular film which leads to a broader conversation about China's economic transformations global politics and cultural production Including discussion of films like Hero House of Flying Daggers Kung Fu Hustle Devils on the Doorstep Suzhou River Beijing Bicycle Millennium Mambo Goodbye Dragon Inn and Hollywood Hong Kong the book emphasizes the transnational nature of contemporary Chinese cinema
