Experiential Theatres William W. Lewis, Sean Bartley, 2022-11-29 Experiential Theatres is a collaboratively edited and curated collection that delivers key insights into the processes of developing experiential performance projects and the pedagogies behind training theatre artists of the twenty first century Experiential refers to practices where the audience member becomes a crucial member of the performance world through the inclusion of immersion participation and play As technologies of communication and interactivity have evolved in the postdigital era so have modes of spectatorship and performance frameworks This book provides readers with pedagogical tools for experiential theatre making that address these shifts in contemporary performance and audience expectations Through case studies interviews and classroom applications the book offers a synthesis of theory practical application pedagogical tools and practitioner guidance to develop a praxis based model for university theatre educators training today's theatre students Experiential Theatres presents a holistic approach for educators and students in areas of performance design technology dramaturgy and theory to help guide them through the processes of making experiential performance

Playwriting, Dramaturgy and Space Sara Freeman, 2024-01-10 Theatre has come back to text but with perspectives shifted by the experimental practices of the twentieth century across performance forms Contemporary playwriting brings its scenographic engagement to the foreground of the text reflecting the spatial turn in theory and practice In production this spatiality has renewed and enlivened the status and impact of text based theatre Theatre studies needs to better describe the artfulness of contemporary text based theatre bringing to it the same sophisticated lenses scholars and critics have used for performance based theatre and other experimental theatre practices This Element does that by presenting the work of Caryl Churchill Naomi Iizuka and Sarah Ruhl as exemplary of the way text based theatre both its scripts and productions now creates and expects a spatialized imaginary and demonstrates the potentials of text based theatre in an increasingly visual and spatial field of cultural production The Theatre, 1886 Vol for 1888 includes dramatic directory for Feb Dec vol for 1889 includes dramatic directory for Jan May
