Woman Doctor:

A Pioneer Woman Doctor's Life Dr. Bethenia Angelina Owens-Adair, 2014-11-20 A friend once said to her If I wished to increase your height two and a half inches I would attempt to press you down and you would grow upward from sheer resentment Divorced at eighteen from an abusive husband in 1859 scandalous at the time and with a little baby to care for Bethenia Angelina Owens was determined to make her way in the world Her family begged her to let them support her but she wanted to earn her own livelihood Taking in laundry teaching school and making cheese were among the tasks she set herself to She eventually built a thriving business as a milliner that allowed her to send her son to college and to fulfill her own dream of becoming a doctor Against all odds and a tidal wave of objections by friends family and male doctors she prevailed Despite the sentiment of the times that it was disgraceful for a woman to practice medicine she enrolled in 1878 at the University of Michigan By 1884 she was making 7 000 per year an astronomical sum as a physician For all of her life she was a strong and vocal advocate of women s rights As a doctor she gave the shocking advice Nothing will preserve woman s grace and her symmetrical form so much as vigorous and systematic exercise and horseback riding stands at the head of the list providing she has a foot in each stirrup instead of having the right limb twisted around a horn She also provides accounts of other pioneer women of her acquaintance For the first time this long out of print volume is available as an affordable well formatted book for e readers and smartphones Be sure to LOOK INSIDE by clicking the cover above Buy it today A

Woman Doctor's Civil War Gerald Schwartz, 2022-04-08 A physician a Northerner a teacher a school administrator a suffragist and an abolitionist Esther Hill Hawks was the antithesis of Southern womanhood And those very differences destined her to chronicle the era in which she played such a strange part While most women of the 1860s stayed at home tending husband and house Esther Hill Hawks went south to minister to black Union troops and newly freed slaves as both a teacher and a doctor She kept a diary and described the South she saw conquered but still proud Her pen honed to a fine point by her abolitionist views missed nothing as she traveled through a hungary and ailing land In the well known Diary from Dixie Mary Boykin Chestnut depicted her native Southland as one of cavaliers with their ladies statesmen and politicians honor and glory But Hawks painted a much different picture And unlike Chestnut s characters hers were liberated slaves and their hungary children swaggering carpetbaggers occupation troops far from home and zealous missionaries Revealed in the pages of this diary is a woman of vast energy intelligence and fortitude who transformed her idealism into action A
