The Women of Shakespeare Louis Lewes,1894 Beyond Comparison Timothy Macklem,2003-06-02 In Beyond Comparison Sex and Discrimination Timothy Macklem addresses foundational issues in the long running debate in legal political and social theory about the nature of gender discrimination He takes the highly original and controversial view that the heart of discrimination lies not in the unfavorable comparisons with the treatment and opportunities that men enjoy but rather in a denial of resources and opportunities that women need to lead successful and meaningful lives as women Therefore to understand what women need we must first understand what it is to be a woman By displaying an impressive command of the feminist literature as well as intellectual rigor this work promises to be a milestone in the debate about gender equality and will interest students and professionals in the areas of legal theory and gender studies

Asian and Hispanic Immigrant Women in the Work Force Fung-Yea Huang,2014-03-05 Data from the Current Population Survey were used in a unique analysis of migration and economic adaptation in a nationally representative sample of Asian and Hispanic immigrant women The study describes migration patterns and compares the labor market adaptation experiences of women who migrated with their families and women who migrated independently The book also examines the systematic differences in migration patterns by country of origin and how these differences relate to labor market performance The findings highlight the considerable impact of immigration policy on the economic adaptation of immigration women Wives who migrated before their husbands were more likely to be in the labor force especially when compared to wives migrating after their husbands In contrast wives who migrated with their husbands were not likely to participate in the labor force Interestingly Asian immigrant wives were more likely to migrate while married than were Hispanic immigrant wives Asian wives who migrated after their husbands earned substantially lower wages than their respective ethnic counterparts Ph D Dissertation Cornell University 1995 revised with new preface and index
