Violent Midnight:

Violent Night Simon Winlow, Steve Hall, 2006-07-25 Why do our night time cities seem to mix pleasure with violence This is the time and place when cities are taken over by young men in search of alcohol drugs another club or a fight Current public policy has patently failed to keep on top of the new trends in both consumption and destruction which make urban centres simultaneously seductive and dangerous Violent Night uses powerful insider accounts to uncover the underlying causes and meanings of violence Interviews with the police the perpetrators and the victims of violence reveal the complex emotions that surround both the perpetration and resolution of crime Violent Night shows that a new approach is needed to successfully rehabilitate a culture struggling and failing to deal with nihilism and escalating hostility Sixties Shockers Mark Clark, Bryan Senn, 2025-01-31 This comprehensive filmography provides critical analyses and behind the scenes stories for 600 horror science fiction and fantasy films from the 1960s During those tumultuous years horror cinema flourished proving as innovative and unpredictable as the decade itself Representative titles include Night of the Living Dead The Haunting Carnival of Souls Repulsion The Masque of the Red Death Targets and The Conqueror Worm An historical overview chronicles the explosive growth of horror films during this era as well as the emergence of such dynamic directorial talents as Roman Polanski George Romero Francis Ford Coppola and Peter Bogdanovich

Connecticut in the Movies Illeana Douglas, 2023-10-03 Illeana Douglas has long been known for shining new light on forgotten films Now the celebrated actress and film historian turns her focus to a heretofore unrecognized brand the Connecticut movie Told from the passionate perspective of the author who grew up here and filled with behind the scenes stories as well as her own personal snapshots of the places where these films were made Illeana takes the reader on a cinematic road trip through Hollywood history and Connecticut geography bringing the breezy intimate knowledgeable writing style acclaimed by reviewers of her first book I Blame Dennis Hopper 2015 Illeana defines how the perception of on screen Connecticut originally created in Hollywood has shifted more than that of any other New England state over the decade and offers some surprising conclusions about just what it means to be a Connecticut movie Films from Hollywood's Golden Age such as Theodora Goes Wild Bringing Up Baby and Christmas in Connecticut presented Connecticut as an antidote to the metropolis a place where you could find your true self The slogan Come to Peaceful Connecticut not only led to Mr Blandings Builds His Dream House but to an exodus of urban moviegoers seeking their dream houses In post war America Gentleman's Agreement challenged Connecticut's well cultivated image as did the suburban malaise of The Man in the Grey Flannel Suit and contemporary takes on dark suburbia like The Swimmer The Ice Storm and Revolutionary Road From Sherlock Holmes to Mystic Pizza to Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull from horror in The Stepford Wives to historical in Amistad picturesque in Parrish to perverse in The Secret Life of An American Wife the Constitution State has been the background for surprisingly over 200 feature films yet these cinematic contributions have long gone unrecognized until now Connecticut in the Movies is not only a keepsake for denizens of the state but a valuable resource for film buffs everywhere Donald Davidson's Truth-Theoretic Semantics Ernest Lepore, Kirk Ludwig, 2009-01-08 Ernest Lepore and Kirk Ludwig examine the foundations and applications of Davidson's influential program of truth theoretic semantics for natural languages. The program uses an axiomatic truth theory for a language which meets certain constraints to serve the goals of a compositional meaning theory. Lepore and Ludwig explain and clarify the motivations for the approach and then consider how to apply the framework to a range of important natural language constructions including quantifiers, proper names, indexicals, simple and complex demonstratives, quotation, adjectives and adverbs, the simple and perfect tenses, temporal adverbials and temporal quantifiers, tense in sentential complement clauses, attitude and indirect discourse reports, and the problem of interrogative and imperative sentences. They not only discuss Davidson's own contributions to these subjects but consider criticisms, developments, and alternatives as well. They conclude with a discussion of logical form in natural language in light of the approach, the role of the concept of truth in the program, and Davidson's view of it. Anyone working on meaning will find this book invaluable.
