Starwick Episodes:

The Starwick Episodes Thomas Wolfe, Richard S. Kennedy, 1994-08-01 One of the most enduring characters in Thomas Wolfe's fiction is Francis Starwick the Midwestern aesthete who befriends Eugene Grant at Harvard in Wolfe's second autobiographical novel Of Time and the River Wolfe created Starwick in order to provide a foil for the artistic development of Eugene Starwick was the pretentious narrow minded dilettante whose response to the arts is all talk and pose as compared with Eugene who hopes to express in writing his intensity of feeling about all aspects of life While writing the novel however Wolfe found his manuscript proliferating beyond his control and he turned to his editor at Scribner's Maxwell Perkins for help in shaping the final version of the book In the process of organizing the massive manuscript for publication Perkins deleted some of the analyses of Starwick's behavior and several of the episodes involving Eugene and Starwick The result was that the relationship between the two young men was not as fully developed as Wolfe had originally planned Richard S Kennedy discovered these excised passages among the Wolfe papers at Harvard University's Houghton Library In The Starwick Episodes has arranged them sequentially and indicated their position in the original manuscript In one of them Starwick introduces Eugene to Joyce's Ulysses and in another he takes him to view the paintings in Boston Museum of Fine Arts Additional scenes find the two exploring the lower depths of Paris until at length their true sexual natures are revealed in a visit to a Parisian brothel Kennedy's research also uncovered the story of the life of Kenneth Raisbeck the young man whom Wolfe used as the starting point for his fictional creation of Starwick In his Introduction Kennedy describes Raisbeck's career both its brilliant promise and its tragic end and his similarity to the character in the novel The presence of Starwick in Of Time and the River is unforgettable despite the omission of some important scenes that Wolfe wrote for him With the publication now of the deleted episodes readers may gain an enriched sense of Wolfe's fascinating creation and a fuller understanding of what he was trying to convey

Look Abroad, Angel Jedidiah Evans, 2020 Born in Asheville North Carolina

Thomas Wolfe 1900-1938 was one of the most influential southern writers widely considered to rival his contemporary William Faulkner who believed Wolfe to be one of the greatest talents of their generation His novels including Look Homeward Angel 1929 Of Time and the River 1935 and the posthumously published The Web and the Rock 1939 and You Can't Go Home Again 1940 remain touchstones of U.S. literature In Look Abroad Angel Jedidiah Evans uncovers the global Wolfe reconfiguring Wolfe's supposedly intractable homesickness for the American South as a form of longing that is instead indeterminate and expansive Instead of promoting and reinforcing a narrow and cloistered formulation of the writer as merely southern or Appalachian Evans places Wolfe in transnational contexts examining Wolfe's impact and influence throughout Europe In doing so he de-territorializes the response to Wolfe's work revealing the writer as a fundamentally global presence within American literature
