

A very concentrating novel involving the wonder of worlds and times, brought together as a man is chosen out of his day to bring to Earth from across the stars peoples from the Kingdom of Leut. Perplexed at first by his being whisked away to where castle and sword give example of the world's era, Melton soon learns of tools there advanced far beyond those of Earth. These tools, now mistaken for the magic of wizards, are of an alien race called Spacers.

Shortly after his arrival to the strange world he obtains the Spacers Sword, a great device which enables him to travel from Leut to Earth instantly. But with changing time paradoxes his travels quickly become astounding adventures, especially once he discovers the Spacers have stolen people from Earth, even to have planted them here across the stars. He becomes obsessed to wage war and battle these aliens from one world to another, and to discover their secret relationship with his own government.

The effort of the author to include Earth and events as they would be today, makes the story of Melton Way more real than mere fantasy, and far more exciting.

"Where is my husband?"

"There, Princess. Yonder is that Conqueror." He again pointed with the arrow to the Spacer ships, now having changed their course from meticulous pattern to random movements about the city skies. There was an enormous explosion then, and, like thunder, a couple seconds after they heard its noise . . .

"Gads Princess, wherever that Conqueror goes, it seems, things are turned to dust!"
