The five novels in The Leatherstocking Tales collected in two Library of America volumes Cooper's great saga of the American wilderness form a pageant of the American frontier Cooper's hero Natty Bumppo is forced ever farther into the heart of the continent by the advance of civilization that he inadvertently serves as advance scout missionary and critic Leatherstocking first appears in The Pioneers 1823 as an aged hunter living on the fringe of settlement near Templeton Cooperstown New York at the end of the eighteenth century There he becomes caught in the struggles of party family and class to control the changing American land and to determine what sort of civilization will replace the rapidly vanishing wilderness When Natty Bumppo started an American tradition by setting off into the sunset at the novel's close one early reader said I longed to go with him The Last of the Mohicans 1826 is a pure unabashed narrative of adventure It looks back to the earlier time of the French and Indian Wars when Natty and his two companions Chingachgook and Uncas survivors of a once proud Indian nation attempt a daring rescue and seek to forestall the plan of the French to unleash their Mingo allies on a wave of terror through the English settlements The Prairie 1827 takes up Natty in his eighties driven by the continuous march of civilization to his last refuge on the Great Plains across the Mississippi On this vast and barren stage the Sioux and Pawnee the outlaw clan of Ishmael Bush and members of the Lewis and Clark expedition enact a romantic drama of intrigue pursuit and biblical justice that reflects Cooper's historical dialectic of culture and nature of the American nation and the American continent LIBRARY OF AMERICA is an independent nonprofit cultural organization founded in 1979 to preserve our nation's literary heritage by publishing and keeping permanently in print America's best and most significant writing The Library of America series includes more than
