The Arts:

The Arts and Their Interrelations Thomas Munro, 2011-10-01      The Arts Public in the South, 1984 Combining and integrating the results of two separate research projects concerned with leisure time participation this report compared southern and non southern involvement in arts related activities Findings indicated that while some regional differences do exist they are not great The desire to increase arts related activities is not as strong as the desire to increase less focused leisure activities but there appears to be a strong unmet demand for increased opportunities to participate in arts related programs including both visual and performing arts While southerners cite cost and accessibility as barriers to participation non southerners mention lack of time Achieved educational levels and prior exposure to the arts are significantly related to arts participation rates Singing in a chorus is the activity in which southerners are most clearly differentiated from the non southern population in terms of greater participation and demand Lack of talent was cited by southerners as a reason for non participation in contrast to non southerners response of lack of training Leisure pursuits of most southerners are not related to the type of work they do While the best predictor of current levels of participation is prior participation this factor was not confirmed with respect to the desire to increase participation in the future Seven tables and 24 figures are included JHP

Blyth Webster Gerard Baldwin Brown, 1921      Elite Art Worlds Eduardo Herrera, 2020 The Centro Latinoamericano de Altos Estudios Musicales CLAEM in Buenos Aires operated for less than a decade but by the time of its closure in 1971 it had become the undeniable epicenter of Latin American avant garde music Providing the first in depth study of CLAEM author Eduardo Herrera tells the story of the fellowship program funded by the Rockefeller Foundation and the Di Tella family that by allowing the region s promising young composers to study with a roster of acclaimed faculty produced some of the most prominent figures within the art world including Rafael Aponte Lede

Cori n Aharoni n and Blas Emilio Atehort a Combining oral histories ethnographic research and archival sources Elite Art Worlds explores regional discourses of musical Latin Americanism and the embrace articulation and resignification of avant garde techniques and perspectives during the 1960s But the story of CLAEM reveals much more intricate webs of US and Argentine philanthropy transnational currents of artistic experimentation and innovation and the role of art in constructing elite identities By looking at CLAEM as both an artistic and philanthropic project Herrera illuminates the relationships between foreign policy corporate interests and funding for the arts in Latin America and the United States against the backdrop of the Cold War
