Unheralded Victory:

Unheralded Victory Mark W. Woodruff,1999 Unheralded Victory is the true but rarely acknowledged history of the defeat of the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese Army at the hands of the American and Allied troops from 1961 through 1973 It chronicles in detail the virtual annihilation of the Viet cong by the late 1960s the book then recounts the first wholesale introduction of North Vietnamese Army troops onto the battlefield in 1964 and American s response the landing of U S ground forces in early 1965 Battle by battle from Ia Drang through Khe Sanh through the Linebacker Operations Unheralded Victory presents a convincing and accurate picture of the American victory Publisher s description Unheralded Victory Mark W. Woodruff,2000 A revisionist history of the Vietnam war charting the defeat of the Viet Cong this text investigates why the popular image of the war then as now is that propagated by Hanoi s propoganda machine and why US propaganda was so clumsy The auhtor also exposes a number of eye witnesses some active in the veterans organizations who were never in Vietnam and whose false testimony has contributed to enduring myth of the crazed Nam veteran as portrayed in cinema and TV Infantry ,2000 Failing to Win Dominic D. P. Johnson, Dominic Tierney,2009-07-01 How do people decide which country came out ahead in a war or a crisis In Failing to Win Dominic Johnson and Dominic Tierney dissect the psychological factors that predispose leaders media and the public to perceive outcomes as victories or defeats often creating wide gaps between perceptions and reality Report American Scenic and Historic Preservation Society,1900 *The Early Life, Campaigns, and Public Services of Robert E. both archival research and his own military experiences in Vietnam Willbanks focuses on military operations from 1969 through 1975 He begins by analyzing the events that led to a change in U S strategy in 1969 and the subsequent initiation of Vietnamization He then critiques the implementation of that policy and the combat performance of the South Vietnamese army ARVN which finally collapsed in 1975 Sermons on the International Sunday-school Lessons for 1876-19 Monday Club (Boston),1880 The Enduring Revolution Major Garrett,2006 A behind the scenes story of how when the Republicans seized control of Congress in 1995 they fundamentally changed American politics CM ,1983 A Clash of Cultures Orrin Schwab,2006-08-30 The Vietnam War was in many ways defined by a civil military divide an underlying clash between military and civilian leadership over the conflict s nature purpose and results This book explores the reasons for that clash and the results of it The relationships between the U S military its supporters and its opponents during the Vietnam War were both intense and complex Schwab shows how the ability of the military to prosecute the war was complicated by these relationships and by a variety of nonmilitary considerations that grew from them Chief among these was the military s relationship to a civilian state that interpreted strategic value risks morality political costs and military and political results according to a different calculus Second was a media that brought the war and those protesting it into living rooms across the land As Schwab demonstrates Vietnam brought together two leadership groups each with very different operational and strategic perspectives on the Indochina region Senior military officers favored conceptualizing the war as a conventional military conflict that required conventional means to victory Political leaders and critics of the war understood it as an essentially political conflict with associated political risks and costs As the war progressed Schwab argues the divergence in perspectives ideologies and political interests created a large and ultimately unbridgeable divide between military and civilian leaders In the end this clash of cultures defined the Vietnam War and its legacy for the armed forces and for American society as a whole Foxtrot Ridge Mark W. Woodruff,2002 In May 1968 American casualties were running as high as 500 men per week killed in action Most American troops were required in the enormous logistic tail necessary to fight a war 10 000 miles from home Electronic Technician ,1959
