Time, Self, and Social Being Patrick Baert,1992 The main object of this book is to present the theoretical outline of a temporalized sociology that is a sociology which both takes novelty as its starting point and makes the link between the shorter and longer temporal spans This temporalized sociology draws upon a variety of sources Firstly it builds on the legacy of four theoretical traditions positivism functionalism structuralism and ethnomethodology Although these four traditions are criticized for failing to take a temporalized perspective themselves they yet offer a number of fruitful ideas and concepts which form the basis of this author s approach The core of the argument for a secondary but not unimportant aim is to demonstrate the contemporary significance of G H Mead s writings

The European Union and Its Eastern Neighbourhood Andriy Tyushka,Tobias Schumacher,2021-11-29 This edited volume brings together some of the most important scholarly perspectives in the form of both journal article reprints and original contributions on the structure and dynamics of the EU's multi-layered relations with its Eastern neighbours within the Eastern Partnership EaP framework and beyond. In May 2019 the EU's EaP, an ambitious and sophisticated policy framework conjoining elements of cooperation and integration with the EU's six eastern neighbours (i.e. Ukraine, Belarus, Moldova, Georgia, Armenia, and Azerbaijan), turned ten years. This anniversary, in conjunction with repeatedly voiced critique by scholars and policy makers alike regarding the framework's effectiveness and utility, led the EU to submit the EaP to a fundamental auditing and revision. Structured around both enduring and emerging issues in the broader EU Eastern neighbourhood framework, this book provides a retrospective analysis of key structural and relational challenges, unfolding regional dynamics, distinctive forms of bilateral/multilateral engagement, whilst also offering a critical perspective on the contested future relations between the EU and its Eastern neighbours. Looking backwards and providing a critical and thorough assessment of the first ten years of the EaP in practice, this book thinks forward and gauges its many potential future avenues. This comes at a crucial moment as the EU and its six Eastern neighbours are in search of new and mutually acceptable forms of association.
