Global Trends in Agricultural Demand, Productivity, and Supply, 1978-1986 Mary E. Lassanyi, 1987 Brands as Productive Assets: Concepts, Measurement, and Global Trends World Intellectual Property Organization, Carol A. Corrado, Janet X. Hao, 2014 The paper looks at brands from an economic point of view It defines concepts analyzes the conditions under which brands are long lived productive assets and contribute to economic growth and reviews the measurement of investment in brands It finds that a productive role for brands is consistent with assumptions used in the economic analysis of innovation Finally it offers an analysis of economic development that suggests branding rises with growth Handbook of Research on Critical Issues and Global Trends in International Education Barker, Megel R., Hansen, Robyn Conrad, Hammer, Liam, 2023-11-24 The Handbook of Research on Critical Issues and Global Trends in International Education addresses the growing complexity and diversity of international schools by examining the critical issues and global trends faced by practitioners in this field With a lack of research on the experiences and actions of school practitioners in these isolated workplaces this book aims to provide practical and evidence based solutions The book covers a wide range of topics including equity and access diversity teacher retention legal frameworks school typology governance cultural competence third culture kids leadership and practice technology and parent engagement Written by educational professionals researchers and anthropologists it offers a unique collection of voices from those with lived experiences in this field making it an invaluable resource for anyone interested in gaining a deeper understanding of the international school sector Whether you are an educator researcher policymaker school leader lecturer or anthropologist the Handbook of Research on Critical Issues and Global Trends in International Education is a must read comprehensive guide to the complexities and challenges of international education providing practical solutions for improving the quality of education in this rapidly evolving field If you are looking to gain a nuanced understanding of the critical issues facing international schools and evidence based approaches for addressing these challenges this book is the perfect resource for you The State of the World's Land and Water Resources for Food and Agriculture 2025 FAO, 2025-12-01 In order to meet the demands of a growing global population agriculture needs to produce about 50 percent more food feed and fibre by 2050 compared with the volumes it generated in 2012 according to estimates by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO Achieving such objectives will place additional pressure on the world's already overstretched water land and soil resources In an increasing number of regions food security and agrifood systems are at risk from unsustainable natural resource management practices urban expansion higher demand for food water energy and biomaterials and persisting social and gender inequalities in access to and governance of resources FAO estimates that more than 1.6 billion hectares ha of land corresponding to more than 10 percent of the world's land area have been degraded by unsustainable land use and management practices More than 60 percent of this degradation occurs on agricultural lands including cropland and pastureland creating unprecedented pressure on the world's agrifood systems Globally urban areas more than doubled in size in just two decades growing from 33 million hectares Mha in 1992 to 71 Mha in 2015 This expansion consumed 24 Mha of some of the most fertile croplands 3.3 Mha of forestlands and 4.6 Mha of shrubland Future survey annual : a guide to the recent literature of trends, forecasts, and policy proposals. 16.1996 Michael Marien,1996 Global Trends in Population and Resources United States.
