Youth Missions:

Youth Ministry Management Tools Ginny Olson, Diane Elliot, Mike Work, 2001 This is a manual for quick and convenient access to the spectrum of administrative and managerial tasks that face youth workers every day with a companion CD ROM that includes not only a student contact database but all the book's forms in editable format

Youth Ministry That Transforms Merton P. Strommen, Karen Jones, Dave Rahn, 2011-05-03 A first of its kind study of Protestant youth ministers reveals the hopes, frustrations, and effectiveness of today's youth workers. Of the 7,000 youth workers assembled in 1996 under Atlanta's Georgia Dome, a sample of 2,130 full-time youth ministers from dozens of Protestant denominations and parachurch organizations answered a battery of exhaustive, deliberate questions covering: What they liked best about youth ministry; What particularly pleased them in their work with youth; What they found most encouraging or discouraging; Their biggest obstacle to an effective youth ministry; Their biggest concern in youth ministry. Their answers revealed a dedicated group of professionals concerned about the students in their ministries but troubled with a variety of perplexing issues. And their answers form the backbone of Youth Ministry That Transforms, a comprehensive analysis of this groundbreaking study funded by the Lilly Endowment, focusing on the hopes, frustrations, and effectiveness of today's youth workers. Spearheaded by Merton Strommen, one of America's most exemplary and influential thinkers and authors in youth and family ministry, the research writing team is joined by Karen E. Jones and Dave Rahn of Huntington Indiana College's Link Institute for Faithful and Effective Youth Ministry, and acknowledged leader in the task of undergirding youth ministry with a research base. These three deliver thorough analysis and sound interpretation regarding the state of youth ministry at the dawn of the 21st century. Youth Ministry That Transforms belongs on the desks and in the classrooms of all who are concerned with this developing profession, including denominational and parachurch leadership, professors, youth ministry students, and thoughtful youth workers themselves. It is also an insightful resource for any who want to understand youth ministers and their profession: senior pastors, executive pastors, and other individuals and committees charged with hiring and supervising youth workers.

Youth Ministry Larry Richards, 1985

Four Views of Youth Ministry and the Church Mark Senter, 2001 In Four Views of Youth Ministry and the Church, solid academic writing is joined with a tone and design that are as compelling to those in the field practicing youth workers as to undergraduate and graduate students. The theological assumptions and pragmatic implications regarding the church's mission to youth constitute a meaty theological dish set on a 21st-century platter.

Youth and Missions Paul Borthwick, 1988

France Anne Sonnet, 2009-08-19 Improving the performance of youth on the labour market is a crucial challenge in OECD countries facing persistent youth unemployment. As labour markets become more and more selective, a lack of relevant skills brings a higher risk of unemployment. Whatever the level of qualification, first experiences on the labour market have a profound influence on later working life. Getting off to a good start facilitates integration and lays the foundation for a good career, while a failure can be difficult to make up. Ensuring a good start will require co ordinated policies to bring the education system closer to the labour market to help disadvantaged young people to find a job or participate in a training course and to facilitate the hiring of young people by firms OECD has launched a series of reports on the school to work transition process in sixteen countries including France Each report contains a survey of the main barriers to employment for young people an assessment of the adequacy and effectiveness of existing measures to improve the transition from school to work and a set of policy recommendations for further action by the public authorities and social partners This report is based on the proceedings of a seminar and is published in both English and French The Summary and Recommendations at the beginning of the volume are translated into French in the English version and into English in the French version Already published in the series Australia Belgium in French Canada Japan Korea Netherlands New Zealand Norway Slovak Republic Spain United Kingdom
