Teaching the Literature of Climate Change Debra J. Rosenthal, 2024-04-26 Over the past several decades writers such as Margaret Atwood Paolo Bacigalupi Octavia E Butler and Kathy Jetn il Kijiner have explored climate change through literature reflecting current anxieties about humans impact on the planet Emphasizing the importance of interdisciplinarity this volume embraces literature as a means to cultivate students understanding of the ongoing climate crisis ethics in times of disaster and the intrinsic intersectionality of environmental issues Contributors discuss speculative climate futures the Anthropocene postcolonialism climate anxiety and the usefulness of storytelling in engaging with catastrophe The essays offer approaches to teaching interdisciplinary and cross listed courses including strategies for team teaching across disciplines and for building connections between humanities majors and STEM majors The volume concludes with essays that explore ways to address grief and to contemplate a hopeful future in the face of apocalyptic predictions Visions of the Wasteland in "Maze Runner". The Scorch Trials as Climate Fiction Sara Bauer, 2023-12-08 Seminar paper from the year 2023 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 0 Humboldt University of Berlin Anglistik Amerikanistik course Genre Fiction language English abstract This seminar paper will deep dive into the origins of climate fiction and the imagery used in the novel as well as compare it to current realities to unveil how The Scorch Trials serves as an allegory of the pressing issues of climate change and a possible future we might face and why it can be categorized as cli fi Is climate fiction merely a subgenre of science fiction or could we already classify it as a genre of its own How do we understand the cultural context of such narratives and what realities do climate fiction draw from A link to James Dasher s novel Maze Runner The Scorch Trials is to be made by looking into dystopian narratives and current pressing climate issues portrayed in The Maze Runner Scorch Trials through climate fiction narration New Directions on Modern and Contemporary Literature - Beyond the Page Mr. M. texts have documented spatially unjust effects of solastalgia This interdisciplinary book will appeal to students scholars and professionals studying literary film and media texts that draw on environment and sustainability cultural geography energy cultures climate change and social justice

The Sage Handbook of Promotional Culture and Society Lee Edwards, Clea Bourne, Jason Vincent A. Cabañes, Gisela Castro, 2024-12-04 The Sage Handbook of Promotional Culture and Society critically examines the social political and cultural impact of promotional industries including advertising branding public relations strategic communication and marketing communication By adopting a global and inclusive approach to its subject the Handbook champions marginalised voices and cross cultural scholarship It brings together contributions from and about a broad range of countries and contexts beyond the Global North providing a well rounded picture of promotion as the international phenomenon it is today Chapters explore both established and emerging topics with an entire section dedicated to the interplay between promotion and identities as well as providing coverage of interdisciplinary issues such as promotional media and children the climate crisis and social media influencers There is also a clear focus on bridging theory and practice with discussions of promotional occupations and workers woven through the chapters By reflecting on the questions of what promotional culture is today how it has evolved and where it is practiced and by whom this Handbook is essential reading for scholars and students seeking to shape future research and debate in this dynamic field
