Global Trend Post Apocalyptic Story:

Nordic Speculative Fiction Jyrki Korpua, Aino-Kaisa Koistinen, Hanna-Riikka Roine, Marta Mboka Tveit, 2024-12-20 This volume brings together scholarly theories and practices on speculative fiction from the Nordic countries including Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden that are all rooted in similar values culture and history yet are independent and unique societies The book exhibits both the convergences and the diversity of the Nordics in fiction and fandom as well as in research It traces the roots of Nordic speculative fiction how it has developed over time and how the changes in Nordic environments and societies caused by overhanging shared global issues such as climate change mass migration and technological acceleration find space in speculative practices The first of its kind this book allows for deeper insights into the unique characteristics that make Nordic literature and art recognisable and allows for a better understanding of the place of the Nordics within wider global culture systems The chapters range from literary critiques film and television studies creative works by three Nordic creative writers transcultural text comparisons and contributions on speculative art to theoretical and methodological discussions on fandom worldbuilding and semantics Part of the Studies in Global Genre Fiction series this book contributes to connecting Nordic speculative fiction scholarship to the wider global community within the field It will be of interest to scholars and general enthusiasts of speculative fiction and those with interest in Nordic fiction film and television studies literary culture or media studies comparative literature and cultural history or art based research Contemporary Women's Post-Apocalyptic Fiction Susan Watkins, 2020-02-29 This book examines how contemporary women novelists have successfully transformed and rewritten the conventions of post apocalyptic fiction Since the dawn of the new millennium there has been an outpouring of writing that depicts the end of the world as we know it and women writers are no exception to this trend However the book argues that their fiction is distinctive Contemporary women s work in this genre avoids conservatism a nostalgic mourning for the past and the focus on restoring what has been lost aspects key to much male authored apocalyptic fiction Instead contemporary women writers show readers the ways in which patriarchy and neo colonialism are intrinsically implicated in the disasters they envision and offer qualified hope for a new beginning for society culture and literature after an imagined apocalyptic event Exploring science nature and matter the posthuman body the maternal imaginary time narrative and history literature and the word and the post secular the book covers a wide variety of writers and addresses issues of nationality race and ethnicity as well as gender and sexuality

The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction Mark Bould, Andrew M. Butler, Sherryl Vint, 2024-06-13 The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction provides an overview of the study of science fiction across multiple academic fields It offers a new conceptualisation of the field today marking the significant changes that have taken place in sf studies over the past 15 years Building on the pioneering research in the first edition the collection reorganises historical coverage of the genre to emphasise new geographical areas of cultural production and the growing importance of media beyond print It also updates and expands the range of frameworks that are relevant to the study of science fiction The periodisation has been reframed to include new chapters focusing on science fiction produced outside the Anglophone context including South Asian Latin American Chinese and African diasporic science fiction The contributors use both well established critical and theoretical approaches and embrace a range of new ones including biopolitics climate crisis critical ethnic studies disability studies energy humanities game studies medical humanities new materialisms and sonic studies This book is an invaluable resource for students and established scholars seeking to understand the vast range of engagements with science fiction in scholarship today Chapter 39 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Terrains of Imagination in Contemporary Finnish Literature Sarianna Kankkunen, 2024-12-24 This study examines experienced space in Maarit Verronen's works of prose fiction The study aligns itself with the contemporary approach often referred to as spatial literary studies a movement connected to the spatial turn within the humanities Theoretically the study draws on multiple fields of spatial studies from semiotics of space to critical theory and poststructuralism By providing a categorization on different approaches within spatial literary studies the study promotes literary studies that utilize spatial theory and explores how spatial concepts can be effectively used as tools for close reading Since the study aims to provide a longitudinal section of Verronen's oeuvre the selected material spans the author's early works from the 1990s to the late 2000s The corpus involves six novels and two short stories The analysis begins with the fantastic realms of Verronen's early career proceeds to consider wilderness and wild spaces turns to visions of dystopic futures and concludes in the narratives of homecoming and homesteading The study shows that Verronen's fantasy draws its allegorical potential from the juxtaposition of spatialized binary semantic oppositions By analyzing Verronen's dystopian novels the study unravels the spatial nature of the genre and the critical potential it encompasses Verronen's narratives on wilderness are approached through the notion of spatial practices and in the context of alienation and postpastoralism Finally the analysis on the literary homes and the acts of homesteading in Verronen's novels foregrounds the open connected and inclusive nature of the contemporary notion of home and new forms of attachment to place both of which are under an active debate in spatial literary studies By bringing together spatial literary studies and Verronen's works this research adds to the study of Finnish literature and contemporary literature's emphasis on space spatiality and environmental issues Moreover the study contributes to the knowledge on the genres of fantasy and dystopia as well as to the study of classic literary tropes and their contemporary manifestations As the study contextualizes Verronen's works within Nordic and European literatures it draws attention to the thematic and stylistic connections that link her writing to broader literary trends and traditions

Post-Apartheid Gothic Mélanie Joseph-Vilain, 2021-03-19 Post Apartheid Gothic White South African Writers and Space analyzes the representation of space in recent works by South African writers By combining analytical tools borrowed from Gothic studies with geocritical and postcolonial approaches M lanie Joseph Vilain assesses the literary mechanisms utilized by Damon Galgut Henrietta Rose Innes Lauren Beukes Justin Carwright and Lynn Freed to negotiate the complexities of post apartheid identities in their fiction Joseph Vilain argues that the literary representations of emblematic places real or imagined the home the farm the city or the non places of dystopia express and reveal anxieties linked to the sharing of space in post apartheid South Africa The text successively re visits the places that have been shaping South African white writing since Olive Schreiner s African Farm in other words its topoi both in the etymological sense of place and in the literary sense of recurring themes or arguments Joseph Vilain argues that these Gothicized topoi have provided writers with tools to explore the deep anxieties generated by the redefinition of South African society as the Rainbow Nation While focusing specifically on the South African avatars of the Gothic and their interaction with local forms and genres like the plaasroman the text also discusses the impact of globalization on South African literary cultural social and political identities Apocalypse: How Catastrophe

Trends in Contemporary Italian Narrative, 1980-2007 Gillian Ania,Ann Caesar,2007 The new Italian narrative TM that began to be spoken about in the 1980s was not associated with a single writer or movement but with an eclectic and varied production The eight essays that make up this volume set out to give a flavour of the breadth and range of recent trends and developments The collection opens with two essays on crime fiction In the first Luca Somigli examines novels dealing with topical issues or recent history and which reveal a strong indigenous and regional tradition while in the second Nicoletta McGowan discusses the particular case of a noir by Claudia Salvatori They are followed by essays on two of Italy TM s best known contemporary writers Marina Spunta TM s essay explores the representation of space place and landscape in the work of Gianni Celati and photographer Luigi Ghirri while Darrell O TM Connell analyses the fiction of Vincenzo Consolo and his struggle to find a means of representing an ethical stance within fiction Two essays then examine the role of the anthology for young writers Charlotte Ross and Derek Duncan in the context of lesbian and gay writing looking at identity politics and the problematics of categorization Monica Jansen and Inge Lanslots in that of the oeYoung Cannibals and their often unsettling non literary language and orientation towards cinema pop music and slang The penultimate essay by Jennifer Burns discusses the literature of migrants to Italy focusing on questions of identity memory mobility and language while the final contribution by Gillian Ania is a study of apocalypse and dystopia in contemporary writing looking at novels by Vassalli Capriolo Avoledo and Pispisa This volume examines Italian narrative from the 1980s to the present from the original viewpoint of genres categories trends rather than author based analyses It highlights the innovations of the last twenty years incorporating into the various themes well known writers like Consolo Celati and Vassalli with relative newcomers like Avoledo and Pispisa The contributors to the volume academics from the UK Ireland Canada Belgium cover a wide range of themes which have come to the fore during this period ranging from detective stories both the giallo and the noir to lesbian and gay writing to immigration literature in Italian to the study of apocalypse and dystopia The themes are contextualized in the socio political and cultural changes taking place in Italy and parallel to this the temporal moments of the narratives are in turn related to their historical realities This is a richly woven account which presents post 80s Italian narrative from a new and stimulating angle in eight lucid and informative essays which will be welcomed by all those interested in contemporary fiction in its cultural context Professor Anna Laura Lepschy Department of Italian University College London
