The Keeping Place:

Making Representations Moira G. Simpson, 2012-12-06 Drawing upon material from Britain Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand Making Representations explores the ways in which museums and anthropologists are responding to pressures in the field by developing new policies and practices and forging new relationships with communities Simpson examines the increasing number of museums and cultural centres being established by indigenous and immigrant communities as they take control of the interpretive process and challenge the traditional role of the museum Museum studies students and museum professionals will all find this a stimulating and valuable read Museum Revolutions Simon Knell, Suzanne MacLeod, Sheila Watson, 2007-09-12 Capturing the richness of the museum studies discipline Museum Revolutions is the ideal text for museum studies courses providing a wide range of interlinked themes and the latest thought and research from experts in the field

Monuments and Memory, Made and Unmade Robert S. Nelson, Margaret Olin, 2003 Examining how monuments preserve memory these essays demonstrate how phenomena as diverse as ancient drum towers in China and ritual whale killings in the Pacific Northwest serve to represent and negotiate time

Place Matters Jonathan Bordo, Blake Fitzpatrick, 2022-12-15 A place comes into existence through the depth of relationships that underwrite a physical location with layers of sedimented names In Place Matters scholars and artists conduct varied forms of place based inquiry to demonstrate why place matters Lavishly illustrated the volume brings into conversation photographic projects and essays that revitalize the study of landscape Contributors engage the study of place through an approach that Jonathan Bordo and Blake Fitzpatrick call critical topography the way that we understand critical thought to range over a place or how thought and symbolic forms invent place through text and image as if initiated by an X marking the spot Critical topography's tasks are to mediate and to diminish the gap between representation and referent to be both in the world and about the world to ask what place is this what are its names where am I how and with what responsibilities may I be here Chapters map the deep cultural environmental and political histories of singular places interrogating the charged relation between history place and power and identifying the territorial imperatives of place making in such sites as Colonus Mont Sainte Victoire Chomolungma Everest Hiroshima Fort Qu Appelle Donetsk airport and the island of Lesbos With contributions from the renowned artists Hamish Fulton and Edward Burtynsky the Swedish poet Jesper Svenbro and others the collection examines profound shifts in place based thinking as it relates to the history of art the anthropocene and nuclear ruin borders and global migration residential schools the pandemic and sites of refuge In his prologue W J T Mitchell writes Places like feasts are moveable They can be erased and forgotten lost in space or maintained and rebuilt Both their appearance and disappearance their making and unmaking are the work of critical topography Global in scope Canadian in spirit and grounded in singular sites Place Matters presents critical topography as an approach to analyze interpret and reflect on place Self-Determined First Nations Museums and Colonial Contestation Robert Hudson, Shannon

Woodcock,2022-04-03 Self Determined First Nations Museums and Colonial Contestation explores Indigenous practices of curation object repatriation and cross cultural community engagement in a dynamic Koori museum Grounded in the fact that Gunai Kurnai people have never ceded sovereignty the text reorients dominant temporal and colonial approaches of museum studies to document and theorise Gunai Kurnai self presentation and community engagement in the Krowathunkooloong Keeping Place Researched and co authored by the Cultural Manager of the Keeping Place Gunai Kurnai Monero Ngarigo man Robert Hudson and white Historian Shannon Woodcock the book traces the temporal social and cultural considerations of the Elders who curated the permanent exhibition in the early 1990s Discussing community management of a collection growing through the ongoing repatriation of tools art and Ancestor remains the text also explores how Robert Hudson engages with visitors to the Keeping Place and local colonial history museums and theorises the power of Gunai Kurnai work with individuals and institutions in the small museum context Finally Hudson and Woodcock demonstrate that the Keeping Place articulates sophisticated Gunai Kurnai grounded methodologies of museum practice in relation to international critical Indigenous studies scholarship Self Determined First Nations Museums and Colonial Contestation provides a vital case study of an Indigenous museum space written from an inside perspective As such the book will be essential reading for scholars and students engaged in the study of museums and heritage Indigenous peoples decolonisation race anthropology culture and history
