than 500 listings for children's book markets, publishers, agents, magazines, and more, including a point of contact, how to properly submit your work, and what categories each market accepts. You'll also find interviews with creators of today's successful children's books, including James Dashner's The Maze Runner series, Lauren DeStefano's Wither series, and illustrator Loren Long's Of Thee I Sing with Barack Obama. Success stories and advice from 13 debut authors and 9 debut illustrators. Informative articles on how to write for boys and other reluctant readers, how to write and sell children's nonfiction, how to sell your picture book, the difference between young adult and middle grade, and much more. Includes access to the webinar Be Your Own Editor: Tips for Self-Editing Your Children's Book from editor Harold Underdown. This 60-minute webinar shows how to take your work and transform it into something great that will get editors, agents, and readers excited. It's taught by Harold Underdown, who is both the editor of the popular kidlit website The Purple Crayon and the author of The Complete Idiot's Guide to Publishing Children's Books. The truth is that getting a first draft completed is just the beginning for any writer. You've got to refine, revise, polish, and overhaul your writing to make it the finest final product it can be, and that's exactly what this webinar will teach you how to do.

America's Story for America's Children Mara Louise Pratt-Chadwick, 1900 Teaching Creative Writing to Second Language Learners Ryan Thorpe, 2021-12-20. This timely and accessible book offers engaging guidance to teachers of second language students on teaching creative writing in their classrooms. Creative writing is a tool that can inspire second language learners to write more, play with language, and enjoy and improve not only their writing but also their speaking, listening, and reading skills. Addressing the expectations and perceptions of writing in another language, Thorpe demonstrates how to foster successful creative writing environments and teach and assess creative writing in a way that is tailored to the distinct needs of non-native speakers. Covering key topics such as cultural storytelling, voice, genre, and digital composition, assessment, and more, Thorpe shares successful creative writing instructional practices informed by current research in creative writing and second language education. Each chapter includes insights, advice, and student examples that can help new teachers take their first steps in a more reflective second language creative writing classroom. An invaluable resource for instructors of non-native students and an ideal text for pre-service teachers in courses in TESOL, writing instruction, and applied linguistics, this book invites you to use creative writing not only as a successful method for teaching L2 writing but also as a way to improve student motivation and output for more effective language learning.
