Rosemary Haddon,2026-04-27 This book examines the formation of Taiwan s modern identity during the course of the twentieth century and its intersection with the new Taiwanese identity Mapping the identity formation to the successive regimes of the twentieth century that are colonial neocolonial and nationalistic this book traverses the spaces of history culture politics and literature to arrive at the ontological performance of becoming Taiwanese It argues that Taiwan s modern identity bears the footprint of its successive hegemonies shaped by the transition from one form of othering to another and from one form of becoming to another By interpreting the salient events of the historical past that shaped the identity and explaining the transition to the present the chapters of this book conclude that the ontologies of becoming
