Contemporary Hollywood Simon Hewitt,2023-07-26 Word of Mouth in Contemporary Hollywood provides a unique insight into the potential for online communication to enable audiences to exert a greater impact on film industrial practices than ever before In an overarching analysis of contemporary Hollywood film financing marketing distribution and exhibition practices Simon Hewitt recontextualises word of mouth in light of social media and examines the growing impact of audience participation Using a Bourdieueconomic approach he applies qualitative research methods to better understand the contemporary Hollywood film audience the contemporary Hollywood film industry and the mechanisms that connect the two The book explores new film financing mechanisms that incorporate fans into the packages used to secure production funds It assesses the role of Grassroots Intermediaries in contemporary film marketing campaigns It critiques democratic crowdsourced methods of film distribution and finally it considers the possible future of Hollywood film exhibition By helping to bridge the gap between the gift economy and commodity culture this book will appeal to students and scholars of media industry studies media finance and economics fan and audience studies film studies film history and media marketing

The Influence of Tennessee Williams Philip C. Kolin,2008-10-06 The author of A Streetcar Named Desire and Cat on a Hot Tin Roof drew on personal and family drama for material Essays examine how Williams s confessional style influenced Inge Mamet Kushner Lori Parks and others There is a special study of African American theater Features interview with Albee on Williams influence Provided by publisher Esquire ,2009 Monsters in Society: An Interdisciplinary Perspective Andrea S. Dauber,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 Are monsters and the monstrous phenomena that transition time and space If monsters were a part of our past and are a part of our present will they be a part of our future This volume demonstrates the universality of monsters and the ubiquitous nature of monsterisation from different perspectives and shows that the creation of monsters and our ongoing confrontation with them is bound by human sociality so much so that the monsters we have been surrounded by and will encounter in the future bear characteristics that mirror inherently human modes of identity construction for example via age gender and visual appearance This process can differ across life stages such as childhood versus adulthood Monsters or what a society identifies as monstrous are not simply cultural artefacts communicated via literature historical accounts or modern media productions such as films or series They are integral components of the human psyche Therefore they have existed in symbiosis with the homo socius and will probably continue to do so in his future American Theatre ,2003-07
