The Communicator's Commentary Mark D. Roberts, 1993 Ezra and Nehemiah address issues that make the front pages of our newspapers and they speak to the yearnings of our hearts This is why the author of this volume Dr Mark Roberts enthusiastically encourages Christian communicators to explore these somewhat obscure Old Testament texts For much the same reason the author believes modern pastors and Bible students can benefit from careful study in the often maligned book of Esther He emphasizes the book s contemporary relevance stating Esther encourages us to grapple with pressing moral issues in light of God s wisdom As a pastor with a passion for communicating God s truths to young people and to the unchurched in our world Dr Roberts shares his personal success in using the books of Ezra Nehemiah and Esther to address contemporary needs Not only is this commentary well written and carefully researched but as an added plus Dr Roberts deep faith and his dynamic relationship with Christ shine through every page As Dr Lloyd Ogilvie says in the editor s preface the author of this fine volume is vulnerable open and honest about how the Scriptures he explains have impacted his own life Marked by the excellence you have come to expect in the Communicator s Commentary series this latest volume wrestles with difficult questions such as the rightful place of Esther in the canon and the puzzling roles of Sheshbazzar and Zerubbabel provides a wide range of quotations and anecdotes from modern and classical sources to help us communicate God s message today and offers balance of exegetical historical and literary analysis along with penetrating applications of the truths reflected in these texts As communicators Dr Ogilvie says we all long for those magnificent moments in our preparation when we are gripped with an inspired insight into a passage of Scripture that prompts us to exclaim that will preach We are filled with excitement and enthusiasm to share what we ve discovered This is exactly what will happen as you study this commentary It is power packed and brimming over with new insight into familiar passages      The

Communicator's Commentary, Psalms 1-72 Donald M. Williams, 1986      Communicator's Commentary Gary W. Demarest, 1991-05      Prophetism from Scripture to Practice Daniel Nii Aboagye Aryeh, 2025-12-12 This book critically examines the relationship between prophetic practices in the Bible and contemporary prophetism in African Christianity Pentecostalism continues to evolve across Africa with its beliefs and practices mimicking the older and well established Christian denominations along with the emergence of newer versions of prophetism or neo prophetism The contributions analyse the theological underpinnings of Pentecostal prophetism and evaluate prophets claims that their practices align with biblical precedents With careful exegesis of relevant biblical passages the book considers the degree to which modern prophetic practices comply with biblical stipulations It provides insights in particular from Ghana Nigeria and Haiti and will be of interest to scholars of African Christianity theology and biblical studies      The Communicator's Guide to Media

Law and Ethics Mark Pearson, 2023-11-23 This book offers an introduction to the key legal and ethical topics confronting Australian journalists and strategic communicators both at home and internationally and offers a suite of reflective techniques for navigating them It starts by positioning morals ethics and the law in their historical and philosophical frameworks by tracing the evolution of free expression and professional media ethics Media law and ethics are then contextualized in their modern international human rights framework Readers are equipped with a skill set for reflecting on the law and ethics of professional media dilemmas including mindful reflection the Potter Box journaling concept mapping and discussion Such approaches are then applied to key topic areas including free expression reputation confidentiality privacy justice intellectual property national security discrimination and harassment and conflicted interests Each is examined in terms of its philosophical underpinnings relationship to human rights professional ethical context international examples legal principles key Australian laws legal cases and strategies for applying reflective practice techniques It concludes on a confident note imploring communicators to engage in constructive and mindful strategic communication with the authority and confidence that results from a working knowledge of media law and ethics This handbook is for professional communicators and students in all fields but particularly in journalism public relations corporate communication media relations and marketing

A Faith Worth Living Chuck Queen, 2011-03-03 What does a Christianity constructed upon and pervaded by a theology of God's unconditional love look like Aimed at a wide audience A Faith Worth Living provides one portrait Chuck Queen weaves together biblical interpretations theological reflections and spiritual observations drawn from stories movies literature and common life experiences in his argument for an inclusive Christianity In a simple though scholarly informed style he addresses Christians students of religion and spiritual seekers Key elements of the presentation include a transformative faith holistic and non dualistic God's dream for the world kingdom theology Jesus nonviolent atonement the church as a kingdom community universal salvation judgment and the cosmic Christ acceptance of other religious traditions and the dynamics of a radical discipleship to the way of Jesus The Navy Chaplain ,1990

Christianity Today ,1988 The Gospel of Matthew John Nolland, 2005-11-01 Having devoted the past ten years of his life to research for this major new work John Nolland gives us a commentary on the Gospel of Matthew that engages with a notable range of Matthean scholarship and offers fresh interpretations of the dominant Gospel in the history of the church Without neglecting the Gospel's sources or historical background Nolland places his central focus on the content and method of Matthew's story His work explores Matthew's narrative technique and the inner logic of the unfolding text giving full weight to the Jewish character of the book and its differences from Mark's presentation of parallel material While finding it unlikely that the apostle Matthew himself composed the book Nolland does argue that Matthew's Gospel reflects the historical ministry of Jesus with considerable accuracy and he brings to the table new evidence for an early date of composition Including accurate translations based on the latest Greek text detailed verse by verse comments thorough bibliographies for each section and an array of insightful critical approaches Nolland s Gospel of Matthew will stimulate students preachers and scholars seeking to understand more fully Matthew s presentation of the gospel narrative Those Who Are Wise Will Shine! Michael L. Henderson,2011-01-06 Taken from Daniel 12 3 Those Who Are Wise Will Shine uncovers God s awesome power at work in the lives of those He chose to bear His message of Redemption from Adam to Christ The lives of these faithful brightly shined forth with His presence in the face of a world full of darkness They knew He spoke to them called them and in turn they were constrained to follow Him There is no better way to shine for the Lord than to know with determined faith who He really is and that where He leads you will faithfully follow These ancient pioneers of faith displayed just that This work seeks to take the readers back to the basics of Redemption and Sanctification though the unfolding of the Redemptive Thread that links the blood lineage of our ancient forefathers to the rise of our Messiah Jesus Christ It ends with the joyous events still to come at His Second Advent From creation to the cross redemption and sanctification are certainly defined as two of the zealous desires of the Lord The overall central theme of the Holy Scripture is redemption Humanity is fallen separated from God and in dire need of reconciliation The Lords perfect gift of redemption reconciles the breach His work in us is what follows Immediately He begins that work and it will never be complete until we see Him face to face He calls us to be holy and set apart for His service Never underestimate the value He has placed on you as a vessel chosen with purpose to be His emissary shining His light into this dark world It is Gods foundational will for each of us to emanate the fragrance of Christ in all He calls us to be Today Christians in most places are still in need of the milk of the word They lead a very shallow and powerless Christian life It is one of the reasons the church is so lifeless in many places It is not enough to know of the elementary principles of Christianity we must also understand their meaning in terms of God s continual work in us We must take them to heart This volume seeks to lay a foundation of trusting God by understanding how God worked in the lives of past saints to make sure His message of redemption went unhindered so it could be ours today Millions in the past millennia have gone beyond the superficial and with God s help stood firmly and boldly on His side A proper understanding of Redemption will only lead you to rejoice with joy unspeakable as you stand in unrestricted service to God He has liberated us to fulfill our redemptive purpose He truly has set us free Hebrews 13 9b teaches us For it is good that the heart be established by grace The word established comes from a which means to be firm or secure literally propped up as in a stick holding up a tent If our heart is truly established by the true teaching of Grace which comes from the nature of the Father then when we fall we still stand Rejoice in Him For Redemption provides just that The Communicator's Commentary Don Williams,1989 [The genius of the gospel; a homiletical commentary on the Gospel of st.
