Values Issues:

Reflections on Values Education John Meyer, 1976-06-28 Everyone ought to be profoundly concerned with the development of the learner and consequently the development of society The ultimate standard value for such development is to attain a more adequate level of value and moral awareness sensitivity reasoning and action The why what and how of the value education emphasis are being seriously confronted in a more dedicated and systematic manner This is perhaps symptomatic of something much deeper in our personal and social fabric Dissonance conflict tensions are inevitable ingredients in our development toward self actualization as we struggle with the sticky matter of life The challenges are many the roads are arduous and the journey is lengthy but who cannot say immensely worthwhile and Value able

Claiming Value Alena Wolflink, 2022-09-08 Value is typically theorized from the frameworks of economic theory or of moral ethical theory but we need to instead think about value foremost as political Alena Wolflink uncovers a tension in value discourses between material and aspirational life As she shows erasing this tension as has been the historical tendency can entrench existing configurations of power and privilege while acknowledging the tension is a vital part of democratic practice Using genealogical conceptual historical and interpretive approaches and drawing from such diverse sources as Aristotle Anna Julia Cooper Michael Warner Alicia Garza and Patrisse Khan Cullors Wolflink argues that abstractions of value discourse in both economic theory and moral philosophy have been complicit in devaluing the lives of women queer people and people of color Yet she further argues that value claims nonetheless hold democratic potential as a means of asserting and defining priorities that center the role of political economy in the making of political communities With many real world examples vividly portrayed Claiming Value is an unusually accessible work of political theory accessible to students in courses on political theory moral philosophy social theory economic theory democracy social inequality and more The Philatelic Journal of Great Britain, 1898 Ethical and Spiritual Values in Counseling Mary Thomas Burke, Judith G. Miranti, 1992

Learning to Teach Geography in the Secondary School Mary Biddulph, David Lambert, David Balderstone, 2015-05-20 Learning to Teach Geography in the Secondary School has become the widely recommended textbook for student and new teachers of geography It helps you acquire a deeper understanding of the role purpose and potential of geography within the secondary curriculum and provides the practical skills needed to design teach and evaluate stimulating and challenging lessons It is grounded in the notion of social justice and the idea that all students are entitled to a high quality geography education The very practical dimension provides you with support structures through which you can begin to develop your own philosophy of teaching and debate key questions about the nature and purpose of the subject in school Fully revised and updated in light of extensive changes to the curriculum as well as to initial teacher education the new edition considers the current debates around what we mean by geographical knowledge and what's involved in studying at Masters level Key chapters explore the fundamentals of teaching and learning geography Why we teach and what to teach

Understanding and planning the curriculum Effective pedagogy Assessment Developing and using resources Fieldwork and outdoor learning Values in school geography Professional development Intended as a core textbook and written with university and school based initial teacher education in mind Learning to Teach Geography in the Secondary school is essential reading for all those who aspire to become effective reflective teachers Praise for previous editions of Learning to Teach Geography in the Secondary School This is a practical and visionary book as well as being superbly optimistic It has as much to offer the experienced teacher as the novice and could be used to reinvigorate geography departments everywhere Practical activities and ideas are set within a carefully worked out authoritative conceptual framework The Times Educational Supplement This is a modern powerful relevant and comprehensive work a standard reference for many beginning teachers on geography initial teacher training courses Educational Review Ethical and Professional Issues in Counseling R. Rocco Cottone, Vilia M. Tarvydas, 1998 For courses on ethical professional and legal issues in counseling and psychology departments This ethics text focuses on counseling and counseling psychology in a format that serves beginning students provides a useful format and structure for professors teaching ethics courses and inspires critical thought about ethical issues Through case scenarios reprints of many codes of ethics and narrative information this book not only functions as an introduction to professional counseling and counseling ethics but it also serves as a compendium of contemporary ethical codes and issues The American Journal of Philately, 1896 Project Teen Concern Nathalie Hawley, 1976

Curriculum Construction Laurie Brady, Kerry Kennedy, 2013-10-24 Curriculum Construction 5e introduces and analyses all aspects of curriculum development interpretation and implementation The text develops students understanding of both the theoretical and practical components of curriculum construction The theoretical dimension of the text includes coverage of the broad social and political influences on a curriculum coverage of global contexts national curriculum initiatives and a discussion of values in education The practical section of the text provides teachers as well as members of the school community with the knowledge and skills to engage fully in the task of curriculum construction Conflict, War, and Peace Sara McLaughlin Mitchell, John A. Vasquez, 2013-08-13 Introducing students to the scientific study of peace and war this exciting new reader provides an overview of important and current scholarship in this dynamic area of study Focusing on the factors that shape relationships between countries and that make war or peace more likely this collection of articles by top scholars explores such key topics as dangerous dyads alliances territorial disputes rivalry arms races democratic peace trade international organizations territorial peace and nuclear weapons Each article is followed by the editors commentary a Major Contributions section highlights the article s theoretical advances and relates each study to the broader literature while a Methodological Notes section carefully walks students through the techniques used in the analysis Methodological topics include research design percentages probabilities odds ratios statistical significance levels of analysis selection bias logit duration models and game theory models Trends and Issues in OD Wyatt Warner Burke, Leonard David Goodstein, 1980

The Value Issue of Business Alvar O. Elbing, Carol J. Elbing, Carol Elbing, 1967 As technology is revolutionized and organizations are expanded the underlying value framework for decision and policy making becomes more and more crucial This book undertakes to provide a clear framework for the value issue of business as it is faced by any decision maker It provides a basis for systematic discussion problem solving and inquiry into the many social value problems of business today Whenever the social value issue of business is raised in public discussion assumptions from the classical economic model are generally taken for granted in the very framing of the issue Therefore this book begins with the premise that the first step in any analysis of the business value issue must be examine these basic assumptions Section I presents a critique of the underlying value assumptions and of the popular formulas based on them from an economic point of view Section II presents an alternative On the grounds that business is a social system as well as a technical economic system it proposes that the value issue be structured in social rather than in solely economic terms It demonstrates that it is from all of the social acts of business rather than from abstracted economic acts that the formulation of the value issue must be derived It clarifies the value issue inherent in the relationship of business to the individual to groups and to domestic and foreign societies Finally on the basis of the systematic analysis of the value issue Section III undertakes an examination of the topic of method for objective value inquiry Publisher
