The Magic Of Findhorn:

The Magic of Findhorn Paul Hawken, 1975 The Magic of Findhorn Gardens Paul Hawken, 1975* Grace, Grit and Gratitude Grace Gawler, 2008 In 1975 Grace Gawler had a promising future A brilliant young vet nurse planning to study veterinary medicine she received a lucrative modelling offer which would have paid her university fees Concurrently her boyfriend lost his leg to bone cancer Grace was at a vital choice point either pursue glamorous well paid modelling work while studying to become a vet or support her boyfriend through his dying months The latter meant foregoing her personal and financial independence and lifelong dreams of becoming a vet Grace chose to support Ian Believing that his cancer was curable she directed her passion into his healing dedicating 18 hour days focussing on juicing massages and pain management whilst researching every cure imaginable With just a few weeks to live Ian proposed Grace accepted taking him to the Philippines for a healing honeymoon the beginning of a long road to recovery He survived and together they established the Gawler Foundation helping thousands of cancer patients gain hope and lead better lives Now a mother of four and with Ian in remission Grace developed her own methods for helping women with breast cancer and authored her first book WOMEN OF SILENCE in 1994 Life was good Disaster struck in 1997 Ian left the family then her own major health crisis began Soon the healer of thousands was struggling for her own life For nine years she battled on with little support Horrendously ill she faced death many times A beautiful woman her shining light was almost extinguished With amazing tenacity drive and passion Grace survived Near death experiences have enhanced her passion for living which bursts through in this book her enthusiasm for life is contagious Her only struggle is to contain the adjectives she uses Now an international wellness leader this modern day heroine inspires all with her story of GRACE GRIT AND GRATITUDE In Search of the Magic of Findhorn Karin Bogliolo, Carly Newfeld, 2002 A fascinating fresh picture of the ground breaking Findhorn Community as it is today despite the difficulties caused by growth finances changing personalities and the departure and death of cofounder Peter Caddy Secular Beats Spiritual Steve Bruce, 2017 The decline of the Christian churches in the West is undeniable but commentators differ in their understanding of what this represents For some it shows a decline in interest in religion as such for others religion has not declined it has only changed its shape Possible candidates for Christianity's replacement are the new religious movements of the late 1960s and what is variously called New Age alternative or contemporary spirituality Secular Beats Spiritual offers a detailed study of the religious and spiritual innovations of the last 50 years It assesses their popularity in the UK and concludes that the not decline just change view cannot be sustained Serious interest in spirituality has grown far less quickly than has the number of us who have no religious or spiritual interest The most popular and enduring movements have been the least religious ones and those that have survived have done so by becoming more this worldly and less patently religious or spiritual Yoga is popular but as a secular exercise program Transcendental Meditation now markets its meditational technique as a purely secular therapy

British Buddhists now offer the secular Mindfulness and the Findhorn Foundation Europe's oldest New Age center is no longer the germ of a counter cultural communalism but sells its expertise to major corporations Steve Bruce also demonstrates that although eastern religious themes such as reincarnation and karma have become more popular as the power of the Christian churches to stigmatize them has declined such themes have also been significantly altered so that what superficially looks like the easternization of the West might better be described as the westernization of the easternization of the West

The Findhorn Garden Story The Findhorn Community,2008-06-01 Newly updated to showcase color photographs this spiritual classic presents the history and philosophy of Scotland's Findhorn Community Findhorn was founded more than 40 years ago in far northeast Scotland on windswept and barren sand dunes that happened to sprout a miraculous garden Plants flowers trees and organic vegetables of enormous sizes began to grow in a small plot around the 30 foot caravan trailer inhabited by three adults and three children living on meager unemployment benefits Guidance by God and absolute faith in the art of manifestation led the occupants to this unlikely locale to create a magnetic center that would draw people from all over the world Their discovery of how to contact and cooperate with the nature spirits and devas that made the garden possible sparked a phenomenon that continues today as Findhorn has grown into a thriving village housing hundreds of people from all over the world and an internationally recognized spiritual learning center

The Encyclopedic Sourcebook of New Age Religions James R. Lewis,2004 In the late 1980s the New Age movement became the focus of both media attention and widespread ridicule as some of the more outlandish aspects of the movement such as channeling and the use of crystals for healing briefly piqued the public's curiosity. While the movement was at its height, scholars of religion generally sneered at what was perceived to be a daffy shallow craze and ignored it as a subject of serious study. Professor James R. Lewis was among the first to examine this growing religious phenomenon scientifically. In previous books he has investigated the New Age as the most visible manifestation of a significant spiritual subculture, the roots of which reach back to Theosophy, Spiritualism, and New Thought. The present collection pursues this theme, bringing together some of the best recent scholarship on new religions. Since the height of its popular influence, the New Age has declined in strength but has given rise to a plethora of new denominations, all shaped by New Age ideas and spirituality. Reflecting the emergence of this new denominational structure, the core chapters of this book focus on specific groups. Other chapters examine the movement's historical roots. A unique feature of Dr. Lewis's work is his inclusion of extensive selections from New Age literature, thus allowing readers to experience firsthand the unusual perspectives of the various groups. This is a fascinating examination of a significant and persistent religious and social phenomenon.
