Straddling Borders:

Straddling Borders Elaine Rusinko, 2003-01-01 The Subcarpathian Rusyns are an east Slavic people who live along the southern slopes of the Carpathian mountains where the borders of Ukraine Slovakia and Poland meet Through centuries of oppression under the Austro Hungarian and Soviet empires they have struggled to preserve their culture and identity Rusyn literature reflecting various national influences and written in several linguistic variants has historically been a response to social conditions an affirmation of identity and a strategy to ensure national survival In this first English language study of Rusyn literature Elaine Rusinko looks at the literary history of Subcarpathia from the perspective of cultural studies and postcolonial theory presenting Rusyn literature as a process of continual negotiation among states religions and languages resulting in a characteristic hybridity that has made it difficult to classify Rusyn literature in traditional literary scholarship Rusinko traces Rusyn literature from its emergence in the sixteenth century through the national awakening of the mid nineteenth century and its struggle for survival under Hungarian oppression to its renaissance in inter war Czechoslovakia She argues that Rusyn literature provides an acute illustration of the constructedness of national identity and has prefigured international postmodern culture with its emphasis on border crossings intersecting influences and liminal spaces With extracts from Rusyn texts never before available in English Rusinko's study creates an entirely new perspective on Rusyn literature that rescues it from the clichés of Soviet dominated critical theory and makes an important contribution to Slavic studies in particular and post colonial critical studies in general

Border Straddling Heritages Ali Mozaffari, David C. Harvey, 2025-11-01 The twin effects of ever increasing mobility and rising globalization have done much to dislodge formerly stable social relations and our sense of time and place In this exacting and geographically wide ranging reassessment of the overlap between borders and heritage Ali Mozaffari and David C Harvey interrogate how this hyperglobalization has simultaneously challenged and intensified notions of sovereignty and nationality Ranging from the impact of empathy in border heritage work to the Europeanization of war heritage narratives and border heritage complexes in the Middle East this volume illuminates the methodological implications of viewing heritage as both an engagement with the borders of the past and an activity that continually creates them

Witnesses to Interwar Subcarpathian Rus' Patricia A.

Krafcik, 2024-06-10 In the midst of a contentious atmosphere of the interwar period the far eastern province of Subcarpathian Rus attracted the personal curiosity and professional attention of Russian ethnographer and theoretician Petr Bogatyrev and Czech journalist writer Ivan Olbracht Both traveled extensively in the region and immersed themselves deeply in the life and culture of the local residents Carpatho Rusyns and Hasidic Jews Witnesses to Interwar Subcarpathian Rus The Sojourns of Petr Bogatyrev and Ivan Olbracht explores for the first time in English the legacy they bequeathed in their respective work Bogatyrev as an apolitical ethnographic collector and theoretician and Olbracht as a passionately committed Communist whose reports and brilliant stories from the region including Nikola uhaj Brigand and The Sorrowful Eyes of Hannah Karadjic capture a glimpse of a world destined to change radically as a result of the ravages of war Developing Power Arvonne S. Fraser, Irene Tinker, 2004 Founders of the global women's movement share personal accounts about the trials and challenges of their work Cultural History, 2003 Twentieth Century China James H. Cole, 2004 Emphasizing reference works published since 1964 these volumes cover books periodicals and inclusions i.e. chapters in edited volumes on the 1911 Revolution the Republic of China 1949 post 1911 Taiwan post 1911 Hong Kong and Macao and post 1911 overseas Chinese Implementing Improved Tenure Governance in Fisheries, 2013 This document has been developed to support the implementation of the Voluntary Guidelines on the Responsible Governance of Tenure of Land Fisheries and Forests in the Context of National Food Security the VGGT in fisheries focusing on the small scale sector Educating for Social Justice in Early Childhood Shirley A. Kessler, Beth Blue Swadener, 2019-09-10 Bringing together scholarship and examples from practice this book explores ways in which early childhood curriculum including classroom practices and community contexts can more actively engage with a range of social justice issues democratic principles and anti oppressive practices Featuring a stellar list of expert contributors the chapters in this volume present a cross section of contemporary issues in childhood education The text highlights the voices of children teachers and families as they reflect on everyday experiences related to issues of social justice inclusion and oppression as well as ways young children and their teachers engage in activism Chapters explore curriculum and programs that address justice issues particularly educating for democracy and culminate in a focus on the future offering examples of resistance and visions of hope and possibility Designed for practitioners graduate students and researchers in early childhood this book challenges readers to explore the ways in which early childhood education is and can be engaging with social justice and democratic practices The International Journal of Marine and Coastal Law, 2004 Journey Into Otherness Ada Savin, 2005 Invites readers to an exploration of the complex ever changing relations between ethnic communities on the North American continent Written by European and American scholars the seventeen essays gathered in this volume focus on the complex dynamics of inter ethnic and inter racial contacts in American history culture and literature Rather than dwell on the traditional opposition mainstream versus minorities the authors adopt a trans ethnic trans national perspective apt to shed new light on various forms of interaction between racial and ethnic groups in North America Tales of the Great American Victory Diederik Oostdijk, Markha G. Valenta, 2006 Exploring topics such as poetry politics and cultures of war this collection of 16 essays tells alternative contradictory and complicated stories about World War II demonstrating that the United States was not always a champion of liberty and justice as some would like the general public to believe Morsels in the Melting Pot George Harinck, Hans Krabbendam, 2006 The Dutch presence in North America has been best preserved in the two largest denominations the Reformed Church and Christian Reformed Church But outside these denominations seven more developed over time of which some are hardly visible for outsiders and also non protestant groups tried to stay together The eighteen essays in this volume describe the ways in which small groups of Dutch immigrants made efforts to maintain their identities in the United States and Canada between 1800 and 2000 Until now many of those groups had never been objects of academic research In the essays presented here the Dutch American and Canadian authors zoom in on the connections of these groups with the Netherlands with other Dutch Americans and other ethnic groups All of them faced the issues of language and education

Safety Series, 1989 Report from the Frontier Julian Burger, 1987 3 Life at the bottom Who's the Boss? Hans Krabbendam, Wil Verhoeven, 2007 Is the present popularity of leadership studies an echo of the status of the U S as the leader of the free world or is it hype created by smart entrepreneurs Have current leadership concepts emerged from the democratic environment in America or do they reflect a globalist and timeless approach How do leadership studies reflect national values such as individualism and competition success commonly associated with American culture An international group of scholars of American society seeks to answer these questions in this volume They critically examine the terminology and the explanatory power of various leadership concepts These essays show that the promises of good leadership to protect democratic processes against political and commercial exploitation are often too optimistic Examples from military academies state politics marginal groups and African American politicians dampen high expectations for new visionary political leadership in the United States Teaching and Studying U.S. History in Europe Cornelis A. van Minnen, Sylvia L. Hilton, 2007 Offering a much needed report on the academic study of U S history in Europe this collection of essays provides a historical overview of its development in 13 European countries It offers insight into the possible connections between governmental policies on both sides of the Atlantic popular interest student demand and individual scholars commitment to this academic pursuit These essays also contribute towards a better understanding of the complex ways in which European historians of the United States have navigated the different and often conflicting demands constraints and opportunities that arise from their official job descriptions and various institutional affiliations Response to a Radioactive Materials Release Having a Transboundary Impact International Atomic Energy Agency, 1989 The Cultural Shuttle European Association for American Studies. Conference, 2004 What is whose As there develops increasing speculation in our age on the nature of globalisation the prodigious flux of ideas people ideas goods and fashions between Europe and the United States over the centuries invites nuanced approaches and a modicum of relativisation Imports and exports the endless back and forth movement of political social economic cultural notions and institutions permanently raise the question of reciprocal influences and contributions Facing realities is both a fact and an indispensable activity American institutions are indebted to European thought American culture has to deal with European visions and the variety of the European heritage American social and political circumstances keep informing and interfering with European choices and decisions What notions values and artefacts are indeed adopted by one or the other continent turn out to be selected in the name of idiosyncratic cultural dispositions and thereby undergo subtle modifications No cultural object or sign ever travels without being profoundly transformed This volume examines nationhood citizenship and culture on both sides of the Atlantic in the light of such complex exchanges At a time when Europe is exploring its own political organization it seeks to profit by the American experience at a time when American culture is more and more forcefully asserting its presence in Europe critical evaluations of its real pertinence grow more numerous What superficially appears to be one sided imposition turns out to be an intricate and complex dialogue Resistance caution recalcitrance defiance and rejection are as important for a definition of identity as enthusiastic sharings and the adoption of welcomed influences however ambiguous and variously motivated An analysis of misunderstandings is the surest way to mutual comprehension Climb aboard the cultural shuttle

The Cinema of John Carpenter Ian Conrich,David Woods,2004 The aim of this book is to give John Carpenter s output the sustained critical treatment it deserves It comprises essays that address the whole of Carpenter s work as well as others which focus on a small number of key films American Studies in Europe ,2001
