The Ultimate Long-Distance Dads Guide Drs. Danny R. Andreas Msc., 2025-05-15 I've lived it myself I wrote this book to share the knowledge I wish I'd known ten years ago before I became a distance dad before the legal battles and before parental alienation began It would have saved me so much time energy sanity and money You can't always be near your child But that doesn't mean you can't still be their dad Read this book if you want to build bonds that distance legal obstacles or parental alienation can't break Own Fatherhood It Matters Today Through research and trial and error I developed strategies across many areas that actually work The close bond my child and I share today despite all the odds is living proof of that My book is filled with practical easy to follow tips you can apply right away It's not rocket science In fact you'll see much of it is just common sense Some of the things you'll learn Parent your child positively and effectively even from afar Build and keep a meaningful bond at each developmental stage Use tech and smart tricks to turn boring video calls into engaging moments Handle legal battles and parental alienation as a divorced or long distance dad Save money on legal fees travel and gifts You don't need permission to be a dad You just need the right knowledge and tools Let this guide help you become the dad your child remembers and respects no matter the circumstances

Handbook of Political Violence and Children Charles W. Greenbaum, Muhammad M. Haj-Yahia, Carolyn

Hamilton, 2020-09-02 Political violence has disrupted the lives of millions of children around the world Responding to the gravity and scale of this phenomenon this volume is intended to stimulate discussion and research on children s exposure to political violence and its psycho social effects It brings together for the first time in a single volume three areas of scientific activity in different disciplines research on effects programs for intervention and laws and policy for prevention of political violence to children Section I presents reviews of research on children exposed to political violence including child soldiers and refugee children as well as an examination of methodology and ethics Section II contains research on interventions with children exposed to political violence including individual therapy and school family and community interventions Section III covers legal and social issues in deterring the recruitment of children to violent causes and protecting children in armed conflict Pulling together the work of leading scholars and practitioners in the social sciences and international law this volume argues that the prevention of political violence to children is possible and it provides a crucial basis for ideas for prevention Resources in Education ,1997 The Trouble with Snack Time Jennifer Patico, 2020-08-18 Uncovers the class and race dimensions of the cupcake wars In the wake of school lunch reform debates heated classroom cupcake wars and concerns over childhood obesity the diet of American children has become a crisis and the cause of much anxiety among parents Many food conscious parents are well educated progressive and white and while they may explicitly value race and class diversity they also worry about less educated or less well off parents offering their children food that is unhealthy Jennifer Patico embedded herself in an urban Atlanta charter school community spending time at school events after school meetings school lunchrooms and private homes Drawing on interviews and ethnographic observation she details the dilemma for parents stuck between a commitment to social inclusion and a desire for control of their children s eating Ultimately Patico argues that the attitudes of middle class parents toward food reflect an underlying neoliberal capitalist ethic in which their need to cultivate proper food consumption for their children can actually work to reinforce class privilege and exclusion suggests how the crisis of children s food might be reimagined toward different ends Willing's Press Guide and
