Dodd Arthur Herbert Dodd,1952 Major-General Thomas Harrison David Farr,2016-05-13 Thomas Harrison is today perhaps best remembered for the manner of his death As a leading member of the republican regime and signatory to Charles I s death warrant he was hanged drawn and quartered by the Restoration government in 1660 a spectacle witnessed by Samuel Pepys who recorded him looking as cheerful as any man could do in that condition Beginning with this grisly event this book employs a thematic rather than chronological approach to illustrate the role of millenarianism and providence in the English Revolution religion within the new model army literature image and reputation and Harrison s relationship with key individuals like Ireton and Cromwell as well as groups most notably the Fifth Monarchists Divided in three parts the study starts with an analysis of Harrison s last year of life the nature of his response to the political collapse of the Interregnum regimes and his apparent acceptance of the Restoration without overt resistance Part two considers Harrison s years of power analysing his political activities and influence in the New Model especially with regard to the regicide The final part ties Harrison s political retreat to his initial emergence from obscurity arguing that Harrison s relative political quietism during the later 1650s was a reflection of the development of his millenarianism Unlike the only two previous full length studies of Harrison the present work makes use of a full range of manuscript primary and secondary sources including the huge range of new material that has fundamentally changed how the early modern period is now understood Fully footnoted and referenced this study provides the first modern academic study of Harrison and through him illuminates the key themes of this contested period Studies in Stuart Wales Arthur Herbert Dodd,1952 Side-lights on the Stuarts Frederick Andrew Inderwick,1888 Studies of conditions and personages of Stuart times including James I Charles I Lady Arabella Stuart Monmouth's rebellion and witchcraft British Consciousness and Identity Brendan Bradshaw, Peter Roberts, 2003-12-18 The historical resonances of the concept of Britain for the communities of the Atlantic Archipelago in the early modern period are explored here in terms of the ideological demands made upon it Various and competing concepts of Britishness are examined from the Henrician legislation which united Wales with England and which created the kingdom of Ireland to the Act of Union of the realms of England and Scotland The chequered history of the consciousness of Britain as a polity which embraced the united kingdoms is discussed in relation to the distinctive national identities of the constituent countries and the question of the impact of Britain on English policy making under the Tudor Stuart and the first Hanoverian monarchs is addressed The puzzling resistance of the Irish to assimilation in contrast to the docility of the Welsh and eventually of the Scots is also explored The Cambridge History of Welsh Literature Geraint Evans, Helen Fulton, 2019-04-18 This book is a comprehensive single volume history of literature in the two major languages of Wales from post Roman to post devolution Britain British Economic and Social History R.
