The Smoke Screen:

The Smoke-screen Douglas Walshe, 1927 Smoke Screen Sandra Brown, 2011-11-10 Number One New York Times bestselling author Sandra Brown returns with another suspenseful thriller Five years ago a disastrous fire gutted the police headquarters Seven people died in the flames but thanks to four brave men most of those inside were rescued The next day and forever after they would be known to the world as heroes Now one of them has called Britt Shelley a hotshot newswoman offering her the scoop of her career and asks her to meet him The next morning she wakes up naked in his bed to find him lying beside her dead She remembers nothing of the evening before but to her horror the police don't believe her As the finger of blame points to her she realises that she is the next intended victim Praise for Sandra Brown Suspense that has teeth Stephen King Lust jealousy and murder suffuse Brown's crisp thriller Publishers Weekly An edge of the seat thriller that's full of twists Top stuff Star

Clearing the smokescreen: The current evidence on cannabis use Elizabeth C. Temple, Richard Hammersley, Margriet van Laar, Rhonda F. Brown, 2015-05-08 Cannabis remains the most commonly used illicit substance world wide with international estimates indicating that 2.8% - 4.5% of the global population use cannabis each year This prevalence rate has not changed substantially in the past decade and there is no indication that it will do so in the next decade In line with this many prominent organizations and individuals have acknowledged that the war on drugs has failed and are now calling for a rethink on drug related policy and legal frameworks With a growing number of jurisdictions across the world heeding this call and introducing legislation to decriminalize or legalize cannabis use it is essential that any changes to legal frameworks and public health policies are based on the best available scientific evidence To facilitate the adoption of an evidence based approach to cannabis policy the aim of this Research Topic was to gather a comprehensive body of research to clarify the current state of evidence relating to cannabis use Of interest were articles addressing the following questions How do we study cannabis use e.g. recruitment measuring dose use assessing dependence problematic use confounding translation of findings from animal studies What do we know about cannabis use e.g. patterns contexts methods of use What do we know about people who use cannabis e.g. who uses cannabis and why What are the social settings norms and cultural values that go along with cannabis use How is problematic cannabis use as opposed to mere use defined judged and constructed in different societies What do we know about the effects/outcomes of cannabis use e.g. acute short and long term harms/benefits What do we know about the factors associated with the initiation/continuance and cessation of cannabis use What do we know about the medicinal use of cannabis e.g. who uses medicinally and why efficacy/effectiveness in different clinical populations comparison with other medications What do we know about treatment for people who engage in problematic cannabis use e.g. who seeks/is referred to treatment and why efficacy and effectiveness What do we know about cannabis e.g. pharmacodynamics pharmacokinetics of different strains cultivation preparation and consumption methods How do policy and legal frameworks impact on the people who use cannabis What is the future for cannabis
