requests from parents for more information outlining practical methods to facilitate their children's development in a simplified condensed manner that honored the Montessori way. The result is this book. I have restricted this material to only the most comprehensive and applicable lessons for parents, parents to be, and guardians. I include fundamentals and ideas taken directly from my hours in the classroom, my time as a nanny, my personal studies, and from insights shared with others dedicated to the tradition of happy teaching.

Theories of Learning Leland C. Swenson, 1980

Nurturing Your Child's Spirit Jeannine L. Schmid, 1997-05. Children already enjoy a spiritual life. Our challenge is to respect their original experiences of God while providing them with the images, rituals, and symbols through which they can express the otherwise hidden life of God's Spirit within them. Nurturing Your Child's Spirit aims to help parents and teachers meet this exciting challenge.

Early Childhood Education Today George S. Morrison, 1998. This comprehensive book provides the knowledge and skills that prospective early childhood teachers need in order to confidently educate young children while effectively collaborating with parents, other professionals, and community agencies. It encourages readers to take full advantage of the educational arena to give all young children the tools they need to succeed in school and in life. The broadest foundational coverage available is organized around seven core themes: Professionalism in Practice, Theory to Practice, Diversity, Family-Centered, Community-Based Practice, Timeliness, Developmentally Appropriate Practice, and Applying Technology. Throughout the material, special features showcase the reality of early childhood education as it happens today. Special coverage of Child Care facilitates students' understanding of the field of child care, offering ideas for developing plans to meet the childcare needs of the future. Discusses Federal and State Support for Early Childhood Programs, covering such programs as Head Start and Even Start.

Good Grief Barbara Ward, 1996. Written to explore and demystify the experience of loss in different contexts within the framework of the National Curriculum, this text facilitates the use of children's own experiences, encouraging improvisation and extension.
