These Clues Selected Poems:

These Clues Raphael Raphael, 2003-11 Raphael's poems shimmer and sparkle with a joy of language that adds depth to the philosophy guiding his work Like E E Cummings he plays with words shaping commentaries on love and life Melissa Hart Author of Long Way Home This collection of exuberant poems brings out the sentient sensuous and sensitive observer in all of us with a healthy dose of humor and a perpetual sense of delight Cecelia Hagen Author of Fringe Living Selected Poems T. S. Eliot, 2021-02-02 There are no poetic subjects in this book no conventional nightingales and daffodils and there is no acceptance either of the traditional rules of metre and rhyme As one discerning critic has said We have here in short poetry that expresses freely a modern sensibility the ways of feeling and the modes of experience of one fully alive in his own age The main poem in this collection is The Waste Land 1922 to which Mr Eliot has himself supplied some revealing footnotes which help the reader to cope with the associations and allusions in which the poem is so rich His theme here as in most of his other poems is disillusion with our contemporary civilization which he contrasts in several of its aspects with the beliefs and practices of other and earlier races It is a difficult poem to follow and even Mr Eliot's own sign posts are sometimes cryptic The Collected Works of Chögyam Trungpa: Volume 7 Chogyam Trungpa, 2010-09-28 The Collected Works of Chogyam Trungpa brings together in eight volumes the writings of one of the first and most influential and inspirational Tibetan teachers to present Buddhism in the West Organized by theme the collection includes full length books as well as articles seminar transcripts poems plays and interviews many of which have never before been available in book form From memoirs of his escape from Chinese occupied Tibet to insightful discussions of psychology mind and meditation from original verse and calligraphy to the esoteric lore of tantric Buddhism the impressive range of Trungpa's vision talents and teachings is showcased in this landmark series Volume Seven features the work of Chogyam Trungpa as a poet playwright and visual artist and his teachings on art and the creative process which are among the most innovative and provocative aspects of his activities in the West While it includes material in which Trungpa Rinpoche shares his knowledge of the symbolism and iconography of traditional Buddhist arts in Visual Dharma this richly varied volume primarily focuses on his own often radical creative expressions The Art of Calligraphy is a wonderful showcase for his calligraphy and Dharma Art brings together his ideas on art the artistic process and aesthetics Tibetan poetics filmmaking theater and art and education are among the topics of the selected writings A Jungian Reading of Selected Poems of Seamus Heaney Joy Rosemary Atfield, 2007 This book offers an examination of Seamus Heaney's poetic volume Opened Ground placing it into dialogue with the major themes terms and ideas of Jungian psychology This work should appeal to scholars interested in Jungian psychology Jungian readings of literature and Irish poetry Opened Ground in which the poems are read in Jungian terms Heaney had referred to himself as Jungian in religion and naturally used terms such as initiation individuation and the unconscious in interviews and essays Therefore key Jungian terms are examined in relation to Heaney's poetic expression of these and explored through at least one poem from each of the collections represented in Opened Ground. This allows for an exploration of the creative tensions involved in the poet's presentation of personal poetic and political concerns while also allowing for further examination of the powerful physicality and musical qualities of the language in which he luxuriates.

The False Laws of Narrative Fred Wah, 2011-04-07 The False Laws of Narrative is a selection of Fred Wah's poems covering the poet's entire poetic trajectory to date. A founding editor of Tish magazine, Wah was influenced by leading progressive and innovative poets of the 1960s and was at the forefront of the exploration of racial hybridity, multiculturalism, and transnational family roots in poetry. The selection emphasizes his innovative poetic range. Wah is renowned as one of Canada's finest and most complex lyric poets and has been lauded for the musicality of his verse. Louis Cabri's introduction offers a paradigm for thinking about how sound is actually structured in Wah's improvisatory poetry and offers fresh insights into Wah's context and writing. In an afterword by the poet himself, Wah presents a dialogue between editor and poet on the key themes of the selected poems and reveals his abiding concerns as poet and thinker.

Faces of Anonymity R. Griffin, 2016-09-27 This pathbreaking collection of original essays surveys an important but neglected topic: anonymous publication in England for the Elizabethan age to the present. An impressive group of scholars analyzes a wide range of literary phenomena, including Shakespeare in 17th-century commonplace books, the phrase "By a Lady," the implied author of an eighteenth-century queer fiction, Bentley, and the battle of books essays by Equiano, the novel (1750-1830) Frankenstein's unnamed monster, the co-authored pseudonym Michael Field, nineteenth-century ghostwriting, and a postmodern hoax on national identity. The editor's introduction places the essays within the context of the historical trajectory of anonymous authorship. Essential reading for anyone interested in authorship and the history of the book.
