These Modern Nights Poems:

These Modern Nights Richard Lyons, 1988 1989 winner of the Devins Award      Poetry Night at the Ballpark and Other Scenes from an Alternative America Bill Kauffman, 2015-06-15 Bill Kauffman has carved out an idiosyncratic identity quite unlike any other American writer Praised by the likes of Gore Vidal Benjamin Schwarz and George McGovern he has with a distinctive and slashing witty learnedly allusive style illumed forgotten corners of American history articulated a defiant and passionate localism and written with love and dark humor of his repatriation Poetry Night at the Ballpark gathers the best of Bill Kauffman s essays and journalism in defense and explication of his alternative America or Americas Its discrete pieces are bound by a thematic unity and propulsive energy and are full of unexpected yet startlingly apposite connections and revelatory linkages Whether he s writing about conservative Beats backyard astronomers pacifist West Pointers or Middle America in the movies Bill Kauffman will challenge maybe even change the way you look at American politics and the American provinces      I Love the Beach, Poetry, Long Walks, Night Runs, Riding My Bike, Sunsets and Smelling My Own Feet... Edwin Estuya, 2011-03-30 this is a summary of his daily thoughts which he wrote every night He loves the beach poetry long walks night runs riding his bike sunsets and smelling his own feet though this is not a perfect commercial grade book this is a story of a persons life a true story of his wanderings his convictions his passions his dreams his frustrations his love yes these thoughts come from his heart this is his story of his road to greatness if theres ever one for him a true story to tell the whole world and the ones left behind      A History of Contemporary Chinese Literature Zicheng Hong, 2007-10-15 This groundbreaking book by the eminent Peking University professor Hong Zicheng covers the literary scene in China during the 1949 1999 period primarily focusing on fiction poetry drama and prose writing Reprinted sixteen times since its publication in the PRC in 1999 it is now available in English translation at last The first section of the book deals with the 1949 1976 period Often derided and ignored as an arid era for literature by both Chinese and overseas critics Professor Hong describes the literature that was popular and officially acceptable at the time and the cultural policies and political campaigns that shaped the tastes of readers and the literary creativity of writers during the period This part of the book is remarkable for Professor Hong s candidness and open mindedness qualities that would have made this text difficult to publish at an earlier date in China Furthermore the platform that the first part of the text provides renders the second part even more understandable to readers unfamiliar with the post 1976 literary scene and offers new insights to those who are familiar with it demonstrating as it does the close links between the two distinctive eras These links are provided by the resumption of literary traditions that had been more or less abandoned during the preceding ten year period as well as reactions against literature nurtured and guided by the state cultural apparatus The second part of the book consists of a comprehensive description of developments and insightful explanations of those developments in the literary arts and literary criticism since 1976 A unique and much needed accomplishment in contemporary literary studies Also available in paperback
